STATE OF MISSOURI
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 2007

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by the Honorable Robin Carnahan, Secretary of State.

Prayer by Brother William Jetton.

Our Father,

Creator of all and Sustainer of all, we thank You for this day and the blessing of this day.

I pray for wisdom and understanding for Governor Blunt, my son Rod and the men and women of the House of Representatives.

I pray You will lead in their leadership within each of the legislative districts of the state.

Assist them with the decisions that must be made as together they develop the future of the state of Missouri.

Please keep us faithful and obedient to Your will and plan.

We ask Your blessings on this 94th Session of the General Assembly of Missouri.

In Jesus' name we pray, in whom we believe. Amen.

The Missouri Highway Patrol, Troop F Color Guard, presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

ADDRESS BY SECRETARY OF STATE ROBIN CARNAHAN

Good Afternoon. I'd like to welcome all of you in the Chamber today.

By law, the Secretary of State presides over the opening of this legislative session until a Temporary Speaker is chosen.

By tradition, the presiding officer is expected to say a few words on this important occasion. So I will gladly oblige...understanding that "fewer words" will be most welcome of all.

Today marks the opening of the 94th Regular Session of the Missouri General Assembly. Nearly 200 years ago when the first Missouri Legislature met, legislators from around the state rode in by horseback or sailed along our rivers to gather together to fashion laws that set the course for our new state.

Today, whether you arrived by rail, air or highway, your job is no less significant. You are here to set the course for our state.

You have the high honor and grave responsibility to serve as representatives of your fellow citizens. It is your job...indeed, it is your duty to represent and give voice to their values, their hopes and their fears.

In every bill you introduce, in every vote you cast, you will be presented with a choice. A choice to either carry out this task by exercising authority over your fellow citizens or by exercising leadership on their behalf.

What is the difference?

Exercising authority is easy. The fact that you have been elected to this office means you've been given the authority by the voters to pass laws to govern our society.

You have the power...sort of like what happens in families. Have you ever heard a parent respond when the child asks "Daddy why do I have to wear a jacket?"..."because I'm your father and I say so."

But your challenge is to find a way to do more than that...your challenge is to exercise leadership on behalf of your constituents and our state.

And that is a much harder task...because leadership requires:

1. Having a purpose...leadership is not about power...it is about purpose;
2. It requires listening and understanding;
3. It requires balancing your own values and beliefs with those of others, and
4. Perhaps most challenging of all...leadership requires both a passionate commitment to your cause and the humility to recognize that you might just be wrong and that someone else may have a better solution.

Great public servants understand the importance of exercising leadership rather than just exercising authority.

Abraham Lincoln certainly understood it. In his Gettysburg Address Lincoln spoke about "the great task remaining before us." He understood that his task was not to merely force his will on political rivals...but instead it was to build a coalition among his rivals that could succeed in giving our nation a "new birth of freedom" that would save the Union.

But exercising leadership isn't just for Presidents...you also have that opportunity right here in this chamber. And it's been done many times before.

For example...

- It happened when political rivals joined together to improve the health of Missouri children by increasing access to childhood immunizations in local health clinics;
- It happened when the Parents as Teachers program was created to help our kids succeed and it became a model for the rest of the nation.

And leadership can happen right here everyday. But it is no easy task.

But lest you think you've taken on an overwhelmingly difficult job, let me submit that there are others in our state doing even tougher jobs everyday. Those who are:

- Struggling to meet a payroll;
- Treating the sick or caring for a disabled child or an elderly parent;
- Fighting chronic, debilitating diseases;
- Struggling in low-paying jobs;
- Teaching in overcrowded classrooms;
- Keeping our neighborhoods and highways safe;
- Serving our country in the military.

Today you gather to represent those Missourians and so many others. And they are all counting on you to put partisanship, self-interest and political maneuvering aside and to think about them.

They are counting on you not to merely exercise authority over them, but to provide leadership for them.

To make government work for them and for their families in practical, prudent and responsible ways that improve people's lives.

And the great task remaining before us could not be more clear...it is still about setting the course for our state. It is about creating the Missouri where our families can:

- Live and grow in safety;
- Be educated in world class schools;
- Find good paying jobs;
- Have access to good healthcare; and
- Grow old with dignity and peace.

And there is no time to waste...

Martin Luther King, Jr. wrote in his letter from the Birmingham jail that:

"...human progress never rolls in on wheels of inevitability. It comes through the tireless efforts and persistent work of men willing to be co-workers with God, and without this hard work time itself becomes an ally of the forces of social stagnation. We must use time creatively, and forever realize that the time is always ripe to do right."

May God bless you as you begin your work.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

To the Honorable House of Representatives of the 94th General Assembly, First Regular Session, of the State of Missouri:

In compliance with Section 115.525, Revised Statutes of Missouri 2002, I have the honor to lay before you herewith a list of the names of the members of the House of Representatives for the 94th General Assembly (First Regular Session) of the State of Missouri, elected at the General Election held on November 7, 2006.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and affix the official seal of my office this 3rd day of January, 2007.

/s/ ROBIN CARNAHAN

ADDRESS BY TEMPORARY SPEAKER BOB DIXON

As we open the 94th General Assembly, let me begin by congratulating each member on being elected to serve in this august body and especially welcome those who are new to this House. To serve one's fellow man is indeed one of the noblest of callings.

Regardless of party affiliation, today's significance and our motivation is the same. We are here to do a job. We are here to serve the people of Missouri. We are here solely because our constituents sent us here.

Serving in this Chamber and presiding as temporary Speaker of the House is an honor. I am pleased to welcome each of our family members, guests, constituents, friends, former members and fellow Missourians. It is you who have made this day possible.

I am especially proud to be accompanied by my family my wife, Amanda, and my daughters Grace, Rose and Olivia. I'm also joined today by my mother Jean, a former member of this House and the first lady elected to it from Greene County. It is a truth undeniable by any observer each of our families has sacrificed so that we are able to serve the people of this great state.

To each family represented in the galleries of this Chamber today, we say from the depths of our beings, Thank You for the sacrifices you have made so that we can in fact serve the people of Missouri.

The prayers and support of our families, friends and constituents under gird this chamber and serve as a mighty foundation. May it carry on by Gods grace.

In ushering in this new session, let us with civility and common purpose set our sights once again upon the principles of good government, the rule of law, and the well being of the people.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER ROD JETTON

I would like to take a moment to formally introduce some distinguished guests. First I would like to introduce a veteran of our nation's military that I am honored to have in attendance today, Jason Brown. Next I want to introduce the Governor of Missouri, Governor Matt Blunt. In attendance with Governor Blunt are other statewide officials who are honoring this chamber with their presence. Also in attendance are Supreme Court Justices. I would like to extend a special introduction to my wife Cassie, my two daughters Emily and Callie, and my son Will. I would also like to introduce my parents, Bill and Judy Jetton. Finally it is my pleasure to introduce my father and mother-in-law, Frank and Marie, and my sister and brother-in-law Josh and Lottie.

As I stand before you today at the opening of the 2007 legislative session my mind goes back two years when you first elected me Speaker.

What a difference two years makes. What a difference you have made in two years we have changed laws that have made Missouri a much better place to live and raise a family, and I am proud to lead a Missouri House of Representatives that worked together to truly make a real difference for our citizens.

Two years ago we were the last state in America when it came to job creation. We lost 70,000 jobs in one year. Two years ago our budget was more than a billion dollars short and we faced having to cut millions of dollars in spending each year. Two years ago Missouri families were threatened by Meth production that lead the nation. Two years ago our state had a bloated Medicaid system with over one million Missourians and was in danger of bankrupting our state. Two years ago we had the second worst roads and the third worst bridge system in America. These bad roads jeopardized the life of our families and hurt our economy. And let's not forget education. Just a few short years ago 1/3 of our 4th graders could not read proficiently for their grade level, and our school funding formula was a disaster.

We looked for solutions to tackle these problems and together we accomplished a great deal.

First we fixed our economy and put people back to work. We did this by instituting tort reform, work comp reform, and unemployment comp reform. We created the Quality Jobs Act. We have added over 45,000 jobs in Missouri since January 2005. In August 2005 Missouri had the largest increase in employment nationally. Today our employment rate is 5.1% and has been as low as 4.4%.

Next we reduced spending by cutting waste, fraud and abuse and by improving programs. We cut spending on the lottery and sales went up. We cut millions in lease payments on sweetheart deals. We shrunk the state workforce to less than 60,000, and we sought to reform Medicaid that saved us $138 million which was previously frauded from the system.

What has been the result of managing our tax dollars better? The best budget in seven years. We ended 2006 with almost $300 million dollars ahead of projections and had a 9% growth rate in 2006. This growth should give us over $300 million surplus, headed into 2007.

So, what have we done with some of the extra money and savings? We have provided low income energy assistance, given more money to the Meals on Wheels program. We have restored eye care for Medicaid. We have given a 4% pay raise for state employees. Instituted a 2% increase to higher education funding, and we have increased funding to secondary and elementary education. When we are not facing billion dollar shortfalls it's amazing what happens.

We also take pride in one other fact. We fixed this budget, put people back to work and now have a significant surplus. All without raising taxes.

We also fixed our schools and passed a new funding formula. This new formula adds over $900 million to schools over 7 years. Every school district in Missouri receives more money under this plan. Last year we passed the largest education budget in our state's history, but it also adds accountability to make sure we are getting the biggest bang for our buck. We also created the Classroom Trust Fund. The good news is that MAP Test scores are up and graduation rates are improving.

Stopping crime and improving public safety was another huge priority for us. We led the charge on stopping Methamphetamine production. We passed Jessica's Law to protect our youngest citizens. We passed stronger DWI laws. We also implemented the right to carry fix. We have reduced Meth incidents by over 40%, our children are now safer from sex offenders and we are getting repeat drunk drivers off our streets.

Also there has not been one instance of a permitted right to carry individual committing any crimes or causing problems. But there have been folks who defended themselves and stopped crimes, which is exactly what we hoped would happen if we passed this law.

Another area that I am very proud of, but can be a bit controversial are the abortion and life issues. We have a strong Pro-Life majority made up of both Democrats and Republicans in the House. We passed several bills aimed at making abortions rare. There is now a 24 hour wait for abortion. There is also a 30-mile radius to conduct abortions. Parental consent is now required for minors to get an abortion. It is also now illegal for minors to cross state lines to get an abortion.

These bills are working. We have gone from several abortion clinics a few years ago to just three today. And for the first time in years Missouri conducted less than 8,000 abortions last year. President Bill Clinton, an abortion supporter, always said his goal was to make abortions rare. Well, in Missouri thanks to your hard work we are doing just that.

I could go on and on listing some of the good things we did over the last two years. Such as stopping Eminent Domain abuse, creating Insurance reform, putting in place an Associated Healthcare Plans, passing the Ethanol standard, Highway reform through the Amendment 3 initiative, providing Emissions reforms, property tax relief for seniors, and creating the link deposit program. On all of these issues we worked together. Believe it or not many received bipartisan votes and passed with huge majorities. In fact Minority Leader Harris and I voted together over 70% of the time, as did myself and Representatives Donnelly, Skaggs, and Zweifel.

We made these changes together but there is still more to do. We can cut taxes on Social Security Benefits. We are one of only fifteen states that still tax these benefits. Our seniors have already paid taxes on this money once. It's not fair to have them pay twice and they need our help.

We need to improve Senior Citizen Nutrition; believe it or not for many seniors getting enough to eat each day is a real problem. The food stamp program is failing some of our poorest seniors. We need to step in and help those who have worked so hard to make Missouri successful.

We need to institute teacher liability protection. Discipline is a major problem for teachers in the classroom. Too many parents don't seem to care about their kid's behavior or education. Many times this negatively affects the learning for the rest of the class. We need laws that will protect teachers from these children and remove them from the classroom so the children who want to learn can. It is sad when two or three kids ruin the education of the other twenty. Let's protect our teachers.

It is time to deal with the St. Louis public schools crisis. For too long these schools have been failing the children of St. Louis. Each time a solution is offered the bureaucrats in charge ask for more time and make excuses for their failures. We can't wait any longer. These children can't wait any longer. Now is the time to act.

It is also time to establish English as the official language of Missouri. English is the one thing that brings all Americans together. Having all our citizens learn English will not only help our newest citizens fit in, but it will make our whole state more competitive with the world. This is the year we should pass this bill.

We need to provide more and better college scholarships. College tuition is growing out of control for many families. We should follow Georgia's lead and provide a scholarship to all Missouri students who want to attend college in Missouri. Help me keep our best and brightest right here at home.

We need to continue stopping Medicaid fraud. We need to pass a bill that will stop fraud and still make sure our poorest citizens have access to quality healthcare. We should allow citizens and workers who spot fraud to keep some of the savings, and those who commit fraud should be fined and face criminal prosecution for the worst cases. But we need to protect doctors from civil lawsuits that might discourage them from seeing Medicaid patients. Today is the day we end fraud in Missouri.

Things are better because of us. I am sure none of the bills we passed were exactly like each of us wanted them. However, there were lots of changes debated; some may have went the way you wanted while others didn't. But in the end the results speak for themselves.

Two years ago we were the number one job loss state in America. Now we have more Missourians working.

Two years ago our budget was over a billion dollars short and we faced each year having to cut millions of dollars in spending. Last year revenues were nearly a $300 million dollar surplus, and we are going into next year with at least a $300 million dollar surplus.

We've gone from several abortion clinics to just three today, and there will be less abortions performed in Missouri this year than any year since 1975.

Two years ago we were the number one Meth producing state in America. Today Meth incidents are down 40% and our kids have a much better chance of not getting hooked on that life-ending drug.

Two years ago we had the second worst roads and the third worst bridge system in America. Finally we are building roads and repairing bridges thanks to the reforms that have changed MoDOT. This will help our economy prosper, but more importantly our families will be safer.

Let's not forget education. Just a few short years ago 1/3 of our 4th graders could not read proficiently for their grade level, and our school funding formula was a disaster. Today, we have a new formula based on student need and district performance. Finally our kids have a better chance for learning and we are spending millions more in the classroom with added accountability.

All this was accomplished with no new taxes. All the critics said our state budget was in a mess and the only way to fix it was by raising taxes. We've seen several ballot initiatives trying to get voters to raise taxes. They all failed. Voters told us not to raise taxes. They wanted us to make changes and manage the state better. That is just what we did.

With no tax increases we have: more people working, a budget surplus, less crime, better roads and bridges, lower property taxes for seniors, more money for education, increased funding for senior nutrition, and better pay for state workers. There is still more to do, there are obstacles to overcome. Together as Republicans and Democrats we will debate the big issues, argue the merits of bills, and keep fighting to make Missouri the best place in America; to start a business, to raise a family, and to enjoy life.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER PRO TEM BEARDEN

Mr. Speaker, Justices of the Court, and Members of the General Assembly, thank you for again granting me the opportunity to serve as your Speaker Pro Tem. It is a privilege and great responsibility that I accept with gratitude. I will seek to honor your trust with the courage of my convictions and renewed vigor as I serve this body and the people of Missouri.

Now is a good time for each of us to take an opportunity to acknowledge and return thanks to those who helped make this day possible.

We thank our families - many of whom are here today - for the love and support they provide for us, and also for the many sacrifices they make to enable our service to the public.

This occasion marks my final oath of office as a State Representative and as your Speaker Pro Tem. I pause to recognize - my wife of 32 years, Debbie - my oldest daughter Amber and her husband Mike - and my youngest daughter Allison. Thank all of you for your love and support and making my service possible.

We must thank the great Missourians who came before us in this House for their hard work and commitment to this institution which made the Missouri House the people's House. We pledge to honor that heritage by maintaining the best traditions married with the will to govern combined with robust yet collegial debate and meaningful solutions for the issues that face our state.

We show our thanks to our active military men and women and our veterans. Without their sacrifices and brave dedication to our republic, none of us would be here today.

And - of course - we thank our constituents who expressed their faith in us on election day. We will return their trust by conducting ourselves with dignity and integrity and by listening as we lead.

To serve the people of St. Charles County and the people of Missouri is a privilege that I both cherish and take very seriously. Our obligation is to pour our hearts, our souls, our time, and our talents into the duties we've been entrusted to fulfill.

There will certainly be partisan battles and principled disagreements - and there's nothing wrong that - but the key is to be assertive yet accommodating; passionate yet productive. Indeed, the majority will prevail, but the minority will be heard and respected.

We all wish for a better Missouri - a state as great as its people. A state where children are given a world-class education and have opportunities for good jobs within their own communities. A state where families are strong, the vulnerable are protected, and where dreams can come true. We may differ on the road map we use to get there, but the ultimate destination is most often the same. I hope we can all remember that when the partisan disagreements come.

The last time you afforded me the honor to be your Speaker Pro Tem, I made a pledge to you that I would carefully examine all sides of the issues before us, weigh all available options, and make decisions based upon what is right rather than what is most popular. I renew that pledge to you today and urge you as legislators to do the same.

On this day two years ago, I spoke of the opportunity before us to become "captains of change" to transform Missouri into a better place to live, work, and raise a family.

I'm proud to say that we seized that opportunity, and because of our actions, the sun is brightly shining on Missouri and the flowers of renewed prosperity are starting to reach full bloom.

Because of our work, Missouri's economy is strong, with new jobs being created and with businesses expanding and relocating here.

Because of our work, our schools are receiving more funding, our private property is protected, and both our children and our elderly are safer.

And because of our work, the significant budget shortfalls we faced not too long ago have evaporated, and we've done it without a tax increase.

But this day is not about the successes of the past. As Abraham Lincoln said, "You cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today."

That's why we are here - to accept and embrace that responsibility for Missouri's "tomorrows".

To build upon the past and to ensure that a bright future is indeed Missouri's destiny, we must seize the new opportunity before us to continue in our roles as "captains of change" and to do so with courage.

We must summon the courage to confront the challenges and obstacles that our state faces today and tomorrow.

That means we must summon the courage not to recklessly spend the tax money that Missourians work so hard to earn, but to ensure that waste and fraud are eliminated and that hard-working citizens are rewarded with tax relief.

We were not elected to serve a taxpayer-funded government and its bureaucracy. We are here to serve the tax-paying people.

We must summon the courage to confront the challenge of those failing and struggling schools, not by too timid to challenge the status quo but by offering real solutions to very real problems.

We must remember that our mission is not to serve the education establishment, but to serve the schoolchildren that are the very essence of our future.

We must summon the courage to confront the growing crisis of access and affordability in higher education, opening new doors to more students, as opposed to shutting them.

We must remember that our charge is not to serve the institutions, but to serve the students and parents that struggle to make the dream of a college education a reality.

And we must summon the courage to begin to build a new healthcare safety net that provides higher quality care to those that need it most. It must be a program that is compassionate and accessible, yet is sustainable enough to ensure a healthy future for Missouri for years to come.

I am reminded of the Biblical passage that says, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.”

Each of you have volunteered to be laborers for the good people of this state...determined, diligent, and - yes - courageous.

Look at this marvelous building in which you sit. The construction of this great Capitol was completed in 1917, 90 years ago this year. Many momentous decisions for our state have been made right here - some good and some not so good.

Despite its grandeur, our strength as a House of Representatives comes not from this building, its pillars, or its history.

Our strength as a House comes not from the power we wield within these walls.

And our strength as a House comes not from our own wisdom or understanding, or the party label behind our name.

Instead, it comes from the people of Missouri who elected us and inspire us, our friends and our family who love and support us, our fellow members who will work with us, and - most importantly - from our Creator who protects and sustains us. And may we never forget it.

I again thank each of you for the honor and privilege to serve again as the Speaker Pro Tem of the Missouri House of Representatives.

May God bless our work during the coming General Assembly, and may He continue to bless the great state of Missouri.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

Pursuant to Section 9.141, RSMo, the Bill of Rights was read by Ryan Lewis of Truman State University.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

(Many of us were at the Governor's Prayer Breakfast earlier this morning. The theme was Foundations of Faith.)

Let us pray about foundations for our work during this 94th General Assembly of the Missouri House of Representatives.

Almighty God, we find the foundations of our work here in the virtues inscribed above the columns of this Chamber: KNOWLEDGE, LIBERTY, EQUALITY, LAW, JUSTICE, FRATERNITY, EDUCATION, ENTERPRISE, PROGRESS, HONOR, TRUTH, VIRTUE, CHARITY and TEMPERANCE. These virtues are discussed directly or indirectly in the Christian and Hebrew Scriptures.

We thank You, O God, for inspiring - whether they knew it or not - those who placed them there. Inspire us to look up at them often and treasure them as the foundation beneath our work in this Chamber of the Missouri House of Representatives.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: James Withouse, Emma Withouse, Grace Chester, Tim Chester and Ellie Fjellman.

The Journal of the first day was approved as printed by the following vote:

The written request shall state the deadline by which the State must comply with the federal mandate and what will happen if the State fails to take action by such date. A copy for each committee member of the federal statute(s) or regulation(s) mandating such action shall accompany the request. If no such action is taken within said time, the bill shall lie on the table. If such a motion is sustained, the bill shall stand automatically referred to the Committee on Rules for further action thereon.

Any bill so reported shall automatically be referred to the Committee on Rules. Any bill reported by the Committee on Rules with the recommendation that it be placed on the House Consent Calendar for Perfection shall be placed on that calendar and after said bill has remained on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection" for five legislative days, it shall be ordered perfected and advanced to the "House Consent Calendar for Third Reading and Final Passage" without further action of the House, unless five members, with at least two from each political party, have filed written objection with the Chief Clerk. If such objections are filed, the bill shall be placed on the House Bills to be Perfected and Printed Calendar. An objection made by five members under this rule cannot be rescinded. Where there is a House Committee Substitute for a consent bill or House Committee Amendments to a consent bill, the committee substitute, or the bill as amended, shall be deemed adopted and perfected by consent.

(c) Senate Bills - Consent. When the Senate passes a bill by its procedure for consent bills, such bill shall be considered for treatment as a consent bill by the House committee without further request; provided however, that the same committee procedures, votes and requirements for House Bills being considered for consent shall be applied to Senate Bills being considered for consent. House committee amendments and House committee substitutes to Senate consent bills shall be deemed adopted on the fifth legislative day.

AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTES

Rule 45. (a) In Writing and Distributed in Advance. Proposed amendments must be reduced to writing. Every amendment shall be distributed in advance of the time the bill is initially taken up for consideration. An amendment shall be considered to have been distributed if it has been placed on the members' desks in paper form, except for the desk of any member who has waived receipt of amendments. The sponsor of an amendment that has been distributed may make technical corrections at the time the amendment is offered or under consideration. Any technical corrections shall be read in full by the clerk. Technical corrections shall be subject to a point of order that they are not truly technical in nature. Every proposed amendment to the amendment and substitute amendment shall be read in its entirety by the clerk unless it has been distributed in advance. Amendments to the amendment and substitute amendments may be offered even though not distributed in advance of the time a bill is initially taken up for consideration.

(b) What Amendments and Substitute Amendments are in Order. When a bill, motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it also shall be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute for the original motion to amend, to which one amendment may be offered. When an amendment is offered, a substitute for that amendment is offered and an amendment to the substitute is offered, it shall not be in order to offer a substitute for the amendment to the substitute. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the aforementioned 12 House appropriations bills shall be required to contain an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the same bill or shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in any other of the twelve bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted.

2. If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is void.

3. The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase in the same amendment or a paired amendment creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

4. For the perfection of the first 12 House appropriations bills of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

5. No House Committee Substitute of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state shall be adopted until all amendments to the first 12 House appropriations bills or substitutes have been disposed of.

No committee substitute shall be called from the calendar of the House until the printed copies have been distributed for at least one legislative day. Amendments, if any, may be offered to the substitute before the vote on the motion to adopt the substitute is taken. If the substitute is defeated, the original bill shall be before the House for perfection and shall be considered and shall be handled on the floor by the original sponsor of the bill.

Order of Amendments

Rule 47. When amendments to any bill, motion or proposition are pending, they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered, one at a time, and as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the substitute amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one, until the substitute amendment is adopted.

(3) The substitute amendment, as amended, is next voted on. If the substitute amendment is adopted, the underlying amendment to which it was offered shall not be voted upon, but the substitute amendment shall become part of the bill.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If any substitute has not been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended.

(5) The House Committee Substitute is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment. If the House Committee Substitute is adopted, there shall be an additional vote for the perfection of the bill, as amended.

(6) If a House Committee Substitute is not offered or adopted, the original House Bill is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRD DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 8, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

The LORD is our rock, and our fortress, and our deliverer; in Him will we trust: He is our shield, and the horn of our salvation, our high tower, and our refuge, our savior; You save us from violence. We call on You LORD, for You are worthy to be praised.

When waves of impending decisions come at us, floods of requests from all directions; when frustration, envy, and anger knock at our door, we wisely call upon You LORD and You hear our voice and grant us peace, insight and wisdom.

Though we have a noble calling and aspire to do great things on behalf of our constituents, we sometimes fall short. Help us to start well and finish well - with our integrity intact.

Keep Your servants also from the sin of pride and arrogance. Let it not have dominion over us. Then shall we do what is right and be free from manipulation, pressure and the fear of man.

We ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

When the Committee on Rules sends the bill back to the originating committee, that committee may amend the bill and report the bill again without the need to reconsider the initial vote by which the committee voted the bill "Do Pass".

2. When a bill is automatically referred to the Committee on Rules with a recommendation that it "Do Pass - Consent", the Rules Committee shall review the bill for the purpose of determining whether or not it should have "consent" status. The Committee on Rules may decide, by a majority of those present, whether or not to place the bill on the appropriate "Consent" calendar. When the Committee on Rules declines to place the bill on the appropriate "Consent" calendar, it may consider whether or not to report the bill to the House with a "Do Pass" recommendation, without "consent" status. The authority of the Committee on Rules with respect to limiting debate shall apply to bills reported by it as "Do Pass - Consent".

3. When a bill is automatically referred to the Committee on Rules with a recommendation that it "Do Pass - Federal Mandate", the Committee on Rules shall review the bill for the purpose of determining whether or not it should have "federal mandate" status. The Committee on Rules may decide, by a majority of those present, whether or not to place the bill on the appropriate "Federal Mandate" calendar. When the Committee on Rules declines to place the bill on the appropriate "Federal Mandate" calendar, it may consider whether or not to report the bill to the House with a "Do Pass" recommendation, without "federal mandate" status. The authority of the Committee on Rules with respect to limiting debate shall apply to bills reported by it as "Do Pass - Federal Mandate".

4. When the Rules Committee shall place a limitation on the time of floor debate on a bill, or on amendments, such time shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, the floor handler of the bill and the floor leader of the political party other than that of the floor handler, or their respective designee(s). The floor handler shall always have the right to have the final one minute of designated time. If time has been allocated and unused by either side and no member from that side is seeking recognition, the Speaker may declare additional time waived and recognize the members of the other side to complete use of their time. Nothing in this rule shall entitle any member to speak longer than the House Rules otherwise allow.

5. In reviewing bills automatically referred to it from another committee, the Committee on Rules may, but is not required to, take such testimony as it deems appropriate to make its decisions. The committee shall not amend any bill that was not initially referred to the Committee on Rules.

(g) When a [standing] committee has reported a bill "Do Pass" with committee amendment(s), the Committee on Rules shall take such action as it deems proper on the entire package of the bill with committee amendment(s) as though the committee amendment(s) were already incorporated into the bill.

(h) If the Committee on Rules is the original committee to which a bill is referred, when the Committee reports such bill "Do Pass" or "Without Recommendation", such bill shall not be subject to the automatic referral referenced in Rule 25(21)(f).1 above. However, in reporting such bill, the Committee on Rules may take any action on such bill as though the bill were referred to it after a "Do Pass" or "Without Recommendation" report from another committee.

A majority of the members appointed to the committee is required to sustain any motion to reconsider.

Committee Hearings

Rule 27. All bills afforded a committee hearing shall be considered by giving the sponsor or handler, the proponents, the opponents, and those testifying for informational purposes a reasonable opportunity to be heard. No bill shall be taken up for consideration by the House unless it has been upon the calendar for at least one legislative day.

(b) No bill shall be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendars unless it is federally mandated, immediate in nature and reduces revenues or savings if not enacted. A federal mandate bill may only contain subject matter concerning the federal mandate. A member wishing for his or her bill to be considered for placement on the Federal Mandate Calendar shall request in writing to the chair of the committee where such bill has been referred. The written request shall state the deadline by which the State must comply with the federal mandate and what will happen if the State fails to take action by such date. A copy for each committee member of the federal statute(s) or regulation(s) mandating such action shall accompany the request. After the committee has voted "Do Pass" on a bill with such a request, it shall take a second recorded vote on whether or not to recommend that it be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendar. If said bill is reported "Do Pass" by the committee with a recommendation that same be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendar, and the Committee on Rules concurs therein, the Committee on Rules Chair shall submit to the Speaker a copy of the original written request, along with a copy of the federal statute(s) or regulation(s) mandating State action. Rule 40. If any bill is reported from committee with the recommendation that it "Do Not Pass" it shall not go on the calendar of the House unless ordered by a constitutional majority. At the same time the bill is reported to the House, the committee chair shall notify the sponsor or handler of the bill that such report is being made. A motion to have a bill placed upon the calendar must be made within three legislative days after the bill is reported and when the sponsor of the bill is present or the motion is made by a member upon the sponsor's written request. If no such action is taken within said time, the bill shall lie on the table. If such a motion is sustained, the bill shall stand automatically referred to the Committee on Rules for further action thereon.

Bills Laid Over Informally

Rule 41. When a bill is reached, in its order, to be perfected and printed, or to be agreed to and read a third time and placed upon its final passage, it may upon the request of the Majority Floor Leader, or the sponsor or handler thereof, if a House Bill, (or upon the request of its handler in the House, if a Senate Bill) hold its place on the calendar, or be laid over informally, and thereafter be called up at any time when otherwise in order.

Rule 42. All bills laid over informally and not taken up and disposed of the same day, shall appear in order upon the calendar for the next legislative day following.

(b) Procedure on House Bills. If the committee shall so determine, the committee report shall include a request that a bill be placed on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection". Any bill so reported shall automatically be referred to the Committee on Rules. Any bill reported by the Committee on Rules with the recommendation that it be placed on the House Consent Calendar for Perfection shall be placed on that calendar and after said bill has remained on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection" for five legislative days, it shall be ordered perfected and advanced to the "House Consent Calendar for Third Reading and Final Passage" without further action of the House, unless five members, with at least two from each political party, have filed written objection with the Chief Clerk. If such objections are filed, the bill shall be placed on the House Bills to be Perfected and Printed Calendar. An objection made by five members under this rule cannot be rescinded. Where there is a House Committee Substitute for a consent bill or House Committee Amendments to a consent bill, the committee substitute, or the bill as amended, shall be deemed adopted and perfected by consent.

(c) Senate Bills - Consent. When the Senate passes a bill by its procedure for consent bills, such bill shall be considered for treatment as a consent bill by the House committee without further request; provided however, that the same committee procedures, votes and requirements for House Bills being considered for consent shall be applied to Senate Bills being considered for consent. A Senate Bill may be considered by the committee for Consent even if it was not a Consent Bill in the Senate.

House committee amendments and House committee substitutes to Senate consent bills shall be deemed adopted on the fifth legislative day.

AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTES

Rule 45. (a) In Writing and Distributed in Advance. Proposed amendments must be reduced to writing. Every amendment shall be distributed in advance of the time the bill is initially taken up for consideration. An amendment shall be considered to have been distributed if it has been placed on the members' desks in paper form, except for the desk of any member who has waived receipt of amendments. The sponsor of an amendment that has been distributed may make technical corrections at the time the amendment is offered or under consideration. Any technical corrections shall be read in full by the clerk. Technical corrections shall be subject to a point of order that they are not truly technical in nature. Every proposed amendment to the amendment and substitute amendment shall be read in its entirety by the clerk unless it has been distributed in advance. Amendments to the amendment and substitute amendments may be offered even though not distributed in advance of the time a bill is initially taken up for consideration. Any amendment to the amendment or substitute amendment that exceeds two 8 ½" x 11" pages in length shall be distributed prior to the time it is offered.

(b) What Amendments and Substitute Amendments are in Order. When a bill, motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it also shall be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute for the original motion to amend, to which one amendment may be offered. When an amendment is offered, a substitute for that amendment is offered and an amendment to the substitute is offered, it shall not be in order to offer a substitute for the amendment to the substitute. Once a bill has been amended, it shall be in the possession of the House.

(c) Committee Substitutes Treated as Original. A House committee substitute shall be considered as an original bill for purposes of amendment.

(f) Appropriations Bills. 1. No amendment to the first 12 appropriations bills of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state shall be in order if it increases the total amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the aforementioned 12 House appropriations bills as reported from the Committee on Budget. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the aforementioned 12 House appropriations bills shall be required to contain an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the same bill or shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in any other of the twelve bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted.

2. If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is void.

3. The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase in the same amendment or a paired amendment creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

4. For the perfection of the first 12 House appropriations bills of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

5. No House Bill or House Committee Substitute of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state shall be adopted until all properly offered amendments to the first 12 House appropriations bills or substitutes have been disposed of.

The substitute shall be handled on the floor of the House by the committee chair or any member designated by the committee chair. The Chief Clerk shall have an appropriate number of copies of the substitute printed. No committee substitute shall be called from the calendar of the House until the printed copies have been distributed for at least one legislative day. Amendments, if any, may be offered to the substitute before the vote on the motion to adopt the substitute is taken. If the substitute is defeated, the original bill shall be before the House for perfection and shall be considered and shall be handled on the floor by the original sponsor of the bill.

Order of Amendments

Rule 47. When amendments to any bill, motion or proposition are pending, they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered, one at a time, and as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the substitute amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one, until the substitute amendment is adopted.

(3) The substitute amendment, as amended, is next voted on. If the substitute amendment is adopted, the underlying amendment to which it was offered shall not be voted upon, but the substitute amendment shall become part of the bill.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If any substitute has not been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended.

(5) The House Committee Substitute is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment. If the House Committee Substitute is adopted, there shall be an additional vote for the perfection of the bill, as amended.

(6) If a House Committee Substitute is not offered or adopted, the original House Bill is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment.

Senate Bills Reported "Do Not Pass"

Rule 62. If a Senate Bill is reported from the committee to which referred with the recommendation that it "Do Not Pass" it shall not go upon the calendar of the House for third reading and final passage, unless so ordered by a constitutional majority of the House. In such case, the motion to place the bill on the calendar shall be made within three legislative days of the report, and by a member who has been requested by the Senate sponsor of the bill. If such a motion is sustained, the bill shall stand automatically referred to the Committee on Rules for further action thereon.

Must Be Germane

Rule 68. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Privileged

Dilatory

Rule 70. When any of the motions enumerated in the preceding rule have been made and lost, no similar motion shall be entertained until some other business is transacted by the House.

Privileged Motions In Order - When

Rule 71. Except as otherwise limited herein, and except when a member is speaking or the roll is being called, the privileged motions set forth in Rule 69 are always in order, and pending the result of such a motion, no member shall leave his/her seat in the House.

Previous Question

Rule 72. Any member may move the previous question. The motion shall be restated by the Speaker in this form: "Shall the question under immediate consideration be now put?" It may be moved like any other question but it shall only prevail when supported by a constitutional majority and until decided shall preclude amendments and debate. If the motion is sustained, the proponent of the matter under consideration shall be allowed one minute in which to make a closing statement before the House votes on the question. A failure to sustain the motion shall not take the matter under consideration from further consideration of the House; but the House shall proceed as if the motion had not been made.

Not Debatable

When the question having been divided is a Senate Bill for Third Reading, each part of the bill shall be voted upon separately and a subsequent separate vote shall be taken on the entire bill. Rule 77. Any member may make a motion, at any time prior to the time said bill is third read and passed, that a bill be recommitted to the committee from which it was reported or that a bill be committed to another specifically named committee, which shall be sustained if a majority of the members present vote in the affirmative.

Motion to Reconsider - Must Be Made Within Three Days

Rule 78. When a motion that a bill be perfected and printed, or that a bill be agreed to, read a third time, and placed upon its passage fails, or when any other question is decided by the House, any member voting on the prevailing side may move to reconsider the vote provided that the motion to reconsider is made within three legislative days after the day on which the vote was taken.

Procedure for Motion to Reconsider

Rule 79. A constitutional majority is required to sustain any motion to reconsider. If the motion to reconsider is sustained the House shall proceed to the original question or motion immediately before proceeding to other questions; whereupon the original question shall be voted upon before any other business of the House is transacted. This shall not preclude further debate or amendment of the proposition, if otherwise appropriate. Any motion to reconsider having failed once shall not be reconsidered again, except to reconsider the vote by which an appropriation bill failed to pass. In the case of an appropriation bill, the motion to reconsider may be considered as many times as the House chooses.

Nothing herein contained shall prohibit a member from voting "Present" on a question, and such vote shall be recorded in the Journal. In the case of equal division the question shall be lost. In the event that a member's vote (or absence) is incorrectly recorded in the Journal, he/she shall file with the Chief Clerk an affidavit stating that he/she was in the chamber at the time the vote was taken, that he/she did in fact vote, that the vote (or absence) was incorrectly recorded and the correct vote that should have been recorded. In addition to any other penalty provided by rule or law, the filing of a false affidavit shall subject that member to censure by the House.

Rule 92. In all cases where a rule of the House of Representatives refers to the "calling of the names of the members" or "calling of the ayes or noes" or "calling of the roll", such reference shall be understood to refer also to the "taking" of the vote by electronic roll call system. There shall be a taking of the vote by electronic roll call system on the motion of any one member which is seconded by four other members immediately standing. A vote by electronic roll call shall be limited to thirty minutes, except in the cases of quorum calls. HCS HR 15 (1-09-07) - Dempsey

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Lord God, You established the earth upon its foundations, send forth springs in the valley, give drink to every beast in the field, cause the grass to grow and bring forth food from the earth.

Instruct us and teach us, Lord God, in the way which we should go: Guide us with Your great forethought and insight.

With the merciful You show Yourself merciful, and with the honorable You show Yourself honorable. With the pure You show Yourself pure; and with the wise You show Yourself wise.

May our activities, this day, be saturated with mercy, honor, purity and wisdom. Guide us by Your hand.

Now may the grace of God, rest and abide with each one of us as we face the responsibilities ahead.

We ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Michael A. Wolff, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Missouri. Chief Justice Wolff was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais where he delivered the following message to the assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

By
Chief Justice Michael A. Wolff

President Kinder, Speaker Jetton, Secretary of State Carnahan, Treasurer Steelman, Auditor Montee, Attorney General Nixon, esteemed members of the General Assembly, my fellow judges of the Supreme Court, and honored guests: I would like to start by paying tribute to two distinguished colleagues from the other branches of government. First, Mike Keathley is a friend to many of us, an outstanding businessman called to public service first as your Senate administrator and then, by Governor Blunt, to be commissioner of administration. We pray for his speedy recovery.

I also would like to pay tribute to Representative Jason Brown. As you know, while stationed in Iraq in October, he suffered a gunshot wound to his chest. He now is back on duty in Iraq. I extend my gratitude, on behalf of the Missouri judiciary, to Representative Brown, for the selflessness and personal courage that he and all of our nation's soldiers have demonstrated in service to our country.

As the people's representatives, you in this chamber, along with the executive branch leaders, set Missouri's policies within the boundaries established by our state and federal constitutions. It is an awesome power that you possess and one worthy of our respect.

Each of our three co-equal branches – legislative, executive and judicial – has been assigned specific roles. It is the system of checks and balances among these three branches of government that is America's unique contribution to the idea of a democratic republic. The Missouri Constitution, echoing the Magna Carta of nearly 800 years ago, guarantees that the courts shall be open to every person and that a remedy be afforded for every legal injury. Unless we choose to abandon what we traditionally have come to understand as a republican form of government, we never must abandon this fundamental principle. We should remember what Benjamin Franklin replied when asked, at the close of the American Constitutional Convention, what form of government the constitution would create; he said: "A republic, if you can keep it."

We in this state have a constant interplay among our branches of government and with our citizens in what is aptly called a laboratory of democracy. As legislators, you have the power to revise the principles of the common law; you have the power to revise statutes when they prove to be inadequate or when courts apply them in a manner with which you disagree. The executive has the power to veto what you pass, and you have the power to enact a statute notwithstanding a governor's veto. And, importantly, the people of Missouri retain the power to revise both constitutional and statutory provisions when they deem it appropriate.

In this laboratory of democracy, these legislative chambers are a marketplace of ideas – ideas that ultimately become the public policy of this state. I have gained over many years a profound appreciation for the legislative process of translating the ideas of the political marketplace – as expressed through elections – into policy expressed as law.

So much of what we in the courts do on a day-to-day basis is driven by the words you give us – to decide cases involving, for example, the status and welfare of vulnerable children, the obligations of marriage, the protection of property rights, the protection of the elderly, and the enforcement of the criminal laws. In hundreds of thousands of cases each year, our courts look to your legislated words to enforce the laws that you enact.

In the 30 years that I have been observing Missouri's legislative process, sometimes at close range, I have been impressed that every one who serves in this body comes with an idealistic and personal vision of how to better the public policy of this state. The framers of our constitutional system purposely created a difficult process through which good legislation is the product of competing visions and compromises among interest groups and interested citizens. In this process, you often are confronted with a question as old as representative government itself: was I sent here to carry out the specific wishes of the voters who elected me or to exercise my best judgment on their behalf regardless of what they might think at the moment? In any event, under either theory, you are accountable to the voters for what you do.

The judicial role, on the other hand, is different. Not better, not worse, but definitely different. Regardless of whether voters agree with our decisions, the courts are accountable to uphold and enforce the laws based on the facts of each case as the litigants present them and within the confines of the state and federal constitutions.

In the first three decades of our state's existence, starting in 1821, Missouri judges did not face the voters: like federal judges, they were appointed by the chief executive, subject to senate confirmation. In 1848, Missouri's voters changed our constitution so that judges were elected on partisan ballots. A few years later the Supreme Court of Missouri decided the first Dred Scott case – in which our court declined to follow its own extensive precedents and instead held that a slave who traveled to free territory was still a slave.

The words of the dissenting judge, Hamilton Gamble, are worth remembering. Judge Gamble, himself a slaveholder, said the court should follow prior case law and recognize Scott's freedom. Addressing the "temporary public excitement" over the issue of slavery that undoubtedly would cloud the people's judgment, Gamble said: "Times may have changed, public feeling may have changed, but principles have not and do not change; and, in my judgment, there can be no safe basis for judicial decision, but in those principles which are immutable." A few years later, after losing his Missouri state case, Dred Scott's appeal of his federal court case resulted in the United States Supreme Court's infamous 1857 decision that denied Mr. Scott's personhood, and his right to sue, in what was truly a low point in American jurisprudence.

Today, most of Missouri's judges – those who serve in the trial courts in 110 counties – are elected directly by the people. Judges in St. Louis, in four urban counties and on the appellate courts serve under the Missouri Nonpartisan Court Plan, adopted by the voters through initiative petition in 1940. Although the governor initially selects these judges from a panel of applicants nominated by a nonpartisan commission of citizens, attorneys and a judge, they are subject to retention election after serving one year in office and periodically thereafter before serving any additional term in office. All Missouri state judges remain accountable to the people through elections.

Unlike legislators, however, judges never should be elected to carry out specific campaign promises. Campaign promises are appropriate for those running for legislative or executive office; in fact, they are essential in helping voters fully evaluate these candidates. But judicial elections are different. After all, if you have a lawsuit, would you really want the judge in your case to promise a position contrary to yours before hearing you present your evidence and legal arguments? No, you would not ... not any more than the local football coach would want to arrive at a game and discover that the referees have already promised to help the other team.

The only promises judicial candidates should make are to follow their constitutional obligations to be accountable to the law, administer justice fairly and impartially, and remain free from political influence and intimidation. When you appear in court as a litigant, you have a right to expect that the judge will decide your case on the facts and on the law regardless of his or her personal beliefs – regardless of political, financial or other special influences or interests.

To achieve and maintain this vision, I want to improve our system of accountability. To do so we must evaluate ourselves honestly and often. As Alexander Hamilton astutely observed 200 years ago, the judiciary has neither the power of the purse nor the power of the sword. Nor should it. We have only judgment. The people's confidence that their disputes will be resolved on the basis of the law is a bedrock principle of our constitutional democracy as well as fundamental to our economic system.

Our obligation to be fair and impartial also extends to our responsibility to administer the affairs of the judiciary wisely. We should be open to evaluations, from the inside and from the outside, to ensure that our process for using the states' resources – which you provide – is thoughtful and wise and based on facts.

To help us evaluate ourselves, enhance our accountability, and determine the best use of our judicial resources, Missouri's court system has taken three solid steps.

Judging the Judiciary

First, to help us understand where we are and where we should be going, I accepted an offer from the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Judicial Independence to conduct a thorough examination last year of our Missouri court system – at no cost to us. This is the first – and only – such study that has been done of an American court system. They used criteria the ABA developed for advising emerging democracies around the world about what constitutes an adequate and effective judiciary. They studied the structure of Missouri's courts and conducted in-depth interviews with civic leaders, political leaders, journalists, members of the bar and others about their perceptions of the strengths and needs of the Missouri judiciary. Some of you may have participated in that survey – I have no idea who did, as all the responses were anonymous – so if you did, I thank you for your involvement, your candor and your insights.

Fortunately, most of what the assessment had to say about Missouri's courts was quite positive. We were rated favorably on our professionalism, the quality and tenure of our judges, and our basic unified structure. Our ongoing plan for the use of information technology also was well received. I would add, by the way, that we are using this technology not only to make our courts more efficient but also to let the public see who we are and what we do. This past fall, we launched a new Web site that will give the public ready access to this information. I invite you to visit our courts both in person and online at www.courts.mo.gov.

Evaluating Judges' Performance

Our second step is to enhance our courts' accountability to the public through elections. How do voters get information about judicial performance? In most of Missouri's counties, the populations are small enough that the public can get to know their judges and candidates without costly campaigns. However, for trial courts in the larger counties, whether included in the nonpartisan court plan or not, as well as for the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, I believe we should enhance the opportunities for the public to get to know these judges, on whom they vote, and to have an evaluation system that provides timely critiques for the benefit of both the public and our judges.

Currently, The Missouri Bar conducts judicial evaluation surveys for every judge on the ballot for retention in nonpartisan plan jurisdictions. The results are available to the media, to the public in printed form in various locations, and on the Bar's Web site. The Bar does all it can to publicize the results given the resources it has, and it should be given great credit for continuing to undertake this valuable service. Most of our citizenry, however, remains uninformed in such elections, mostly because they don't know where to look for information, and this may result in a lack of confidence about our system. I might add, however, that it does have the effect of keeping judges humble. I know I wake up each morning and think of the 582,249 people who voted against me six years ago. Not that anyone's counting. I don't even know 582,249 people, but I'd like to prove to them that the 1.27 million or so Missourians who voted to retain me got it right.

We should try to remedy the lack of information about judges. I am asking The Missouri Bar to convene a fair cross-section of citizens – nonlawyers as well as lawyers – to review our judicial evaluation system, to look at systems in place in other states, and to propose a model that gives useful information about judges that can be communicated effectively to the electorate.

I emphasize two aspects of judicial evaluations. First, a judicial evaluation system should include not just the voices of attorneys, but also the voices of jurors, litigants, witnesses, court staff and others with direct experience with the judges. Second, while the results of a judicial evaluation system should be made available at election, the true intent of any evaluation system is to assist in improving both individual and institutional performance; in other words, evaluation should be ongoing. These evaluations should be timed both to allow judges to have an opportunity to improve as a result of the review and to give voters information before elections where the judges' futures are decided. I believe that the vast majority of judges will be rated highly and that even the highest rated judges will learn something useful about how they do their jobs.

My hope is that the group of citizens convened by The Missouri Bar will propose a judicial evaluation system that is driven by nonlawyers as well as by the members of the Bar; that is independent and nonpartisan; and that produces credible results made widely available to the voting public.

Using Our Resources Wisely

Our third step is to evaluate ourselves in the use and distribution of our resources. The weaknesses the ABA committee identified in its assessment report all relate to lack of resources. One of these relates to the impact of judicial salaries in Missouri. On this topic, I will simply say this: I believe the schedule established by the Citizens' Commission on Compensation under the constitution is sensible and appropriately restrained. The citizens' schedule is essential to our continued ability to attract highly qualified and well-motivated men and women to judicial service. Seven years without one penny of increase is too long.

As for the other needs identified by the ABA report, we look forward to addressing them with you in the budgetary process. We do not seek more judges now. Instead, we need to examine critically and competently how our current resources are deployed. Four years ago, Senator Matt Bartle chaired an Interim Committee on Judicial Resources, which made several recommendations, some dealing with judicial procedure and others dealing with judicial personnel. Many of the recommendations have been implemented.

But because there is no consistent understanding of judicial resource needs, attempts to fashion a consistent process for creating judgeships in this state have languished. Without a coherent method for making decisions allocating judicial personnel, people conclude what they want from the raw data currently available, which includes only population figures and numbers of cases.

But numbers of people and numbers of cases are only part of the answer. To get a true picture of our needs across the state, we have undertaken a substantial study – the first of its kind in Missouri – to review the weighted workload of Missouri's trial judges. I say "workload," not "caseload," because if you just count cases, you will not necessarily get a useful answer. A 15-minute hearing involving a traffic ticket and a two-week murder trial each counts as one "case," but each obviously has a much different impact on judicial time, both in preparation and in the courtroom. Likewise, time that judges spend on administrative duties is essential to the operation of the courts; in rural areas, especially, where one circuit may include as many as five counties, judges spend time moving from county to county to hear cases – we must account for this travel time.

America's expert in conducting judicial weighted workload studies is the National Center for State Courts, which we have engaged to direct Missouri's study. A cross-section of Missouri's trial judges is serving as a steering committee to guide the study, and the National Center is using methodology that has been used in many other states with similar population distributions between urban and rural areas.

This study, which they are conducting this spring, is essential for our future to provide useful information to us, to the public, and to you, the legislature, so that together we might make more informed decisions about judicial personnel needs. The legislative and executive branches are the appropriators of money, but we have an obligation to advise you how best to spend the public's dollars for courts. This will assure adequate judicial service in every county of the state.

Do we need more judges? My own guess is that, overall, we have enough judges statewide. But until the data are available this summer, any guess regarding our judicial personnel is still just a guess. We are now filling needs in some areas by transferring judges and using senior judges. We should wait for the results of this study before making any long-term changes in allocation or numbers of judges.

Cooperative Efforts

Although there remains much to improve that the three steps I have described will help bring to light, there is much that we have done in recent years to increase our efficiency and, indeed, to cooperate in improving state government as a whole. Through legislation you passed in 2004, we established methods to collect overdue court debt through the use of income tax offsets, time payment fees and private debt collection agencies. The end result of these efforts has been twofold: a greater respect for the laws you pass, by virtue of the higher percentages of court costs and fines paid, and, since the programs began, an increase of more than $3 million to the state and to local governments and school districts. Almost none of that money comes to the judiciary, just in case you were wondering.

There are other examples. We continue to cooperate with the department of corrections and other agencies in seeking alternatives to prison, including our drug courts, to enhance public safety and to avoid wasting scarce correctional dollars. Additionally, we have remained in contact with you about several opportunities that may allow all three branches of government to become even more efficient. These include the potential for greater savings of time and money in our juvenile justice system as well as for a structural reduction in the public defender's caseload. Working as partners, we can solve these kinds of problems. We are committed to cooperating with you in a continued spirit of openness and respect, so that we all may better serve the citizens to whom we all are ultimately accountable.

In the past 18 months, during which I have been privileged to serve as chief justice, I have worked hard to help our citizens better understand their system of government. Judges and members of the bar around the state similarly have embraced the challenge of engaging in civics education.

In the eight and a half years I have served on the Supreme Court – and especially in these last 18 months – I have gotten to know many of the fine men and women who serve in the judicial branch as judges, as clerks and as support staff throughout the state. I am very proud of their dedication and of the work they do, week in and week out, to uphold the rule of law and to maintain a stable, civil society in our state through the fair and impartial administration of justice.

On their behalf, I assure you that we in the judiciary will continue to be responsive to the public's needs, and we will continue to evaluate ourselves – subject to the scrutiny of others – in the spirit of honesty and accountability that all Missourians should expect of us. In turn, it is my hope that you will continue to work with us toward the goal of giving Missouri the greatest judicial system possible. Without your continued support, we cannot meet this goal. But with your support, I am certain that we will.

Thank you.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

On the day after the address of President Bush on the war in Iraq, let us pray for those in authority, as the scriptures guide us to do.

Almighty God, we pray for President Bush, the Secretary of Defense, all who advise them, and all who critique their decisions. Guide and challenge them all by Your grace, until they have purity of intention. Strengthen them with clarity of thought, full understanding and right judgment. We pray for the generals and other officers on the ground in Iraq. Give them courage and wisdom and proper concern for the innocent. We pray for all our armed forces serving in Iraq. Keep them safe.

We pray for the Prime Minister of Iraq and all who lead that government. Give them the wisdom and skill to develop a just and peaceful society.

Lord God, obeying Your word, we pray for the enemy. Heal them of their pain. Turn hatred to understanding.

Raise up leaders on all sides to work behind the scenes to discern the true causes of this war. Inspire those with the power on all sides to have the courage and integrity to remove the causes of war.

May our concern for the international involvements of our nation strengthen us today for our work here.

We pray Almighty God, our God forever and ever. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

(We are here at 4:00 today because yesterday we commemorated the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.)

Let us pray.

Almighty God, You raised up Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., a prophet speaking the truth of freedom as Your gift to every human person. He showed us that freedom is cast in the very foundation of America and yet kept from a large portion of Americans. You stung our consciences through his word and example.

We thank You our God for the great advances of freedom for all in the last forty years. By Your grace may our consciences remain alert and honest about ways in which some of our deserving citizens are still not as free as most of us.

Give us the grace we need to carry out our special responsibility, as members of this body, for guarding the gift of freedom in our land and for advancing it into places where it is yet lacking or incomplete.

You are our God, our eternal Father. We honor and adore You forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 17, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Icet in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Father God, You are our anchor in stressful times; our stability in adversity. We are grateful to know that You are mindful of us, watching over our coming in and going out. You are good with only our best at heart.

And so we are thankful and glad and feel completely secure; confident that You will not abandon us in our hour of need.

We are aware that it was not our power or our might that have brought us to this place, but Your sovereign grace. All authority is of You.

Help us in our impatience. Grant stability when we waver. Strengthen us when we are weak. Forgive us for hasty words. Comfort us in Your love.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with each one of us throughout this coming week.

We ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ed Kretzler.

NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Lord God, as we conclude the ninth day of this 94th Session of the General Assembly, we have begun to use the dimensions of authority given us through our election to this body. We remember Your holy word:

"Let every person be subordinate to the higher authority, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been established by God." (Romans 13:1)

Almighty God, when we feel the authority that is ours and when we use it, may we also feel humble, remembering, "there is no authority except from You." Help us, by Your grace, to be very conscientious in using our authority, because in using it we are responsible to You.

May Your Holy Spirit remind us to pray often about these matters, for You are the one in whom all authority rests, our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Don Stauffer and Michel Drehle.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Lord God, we thank You that Your life-giving Spirit rests upon us; Your very Presence that brings wisdom and understanding, that gives direction and builds strength, that instills knowledge and the Fear-of-GOD.

We thank You for breaths of fresh air: a time of introspection, a time of calm reflection, a time to refocus.

We thank You that when frustration invades our minds, when our hearts are in turmoil, You quiet us and give us renewed hope and cheer.

May Your plan and purpose, for this Assembly, be our most prized pursuit throughout this week. May it be established in this place and in our lives.

Now may Your grace abide with us all through this week.

We ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

ELEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray, first, by listening, listening to a verse from the Hebrew Scriptures.

"The Lord God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life and so man became a living being."
(Genesis 2:7)

Holy God and Creator of all, we who believe in You learn from this Word that You are the Creator of Life.

We thank You for our own life. It is our most precious possession. In our families many of us are entrusted with the care of the very lives of others. We have accepted this responsibility, and we give thanks for the love and fulfillment we receive in carrying it out.

Almighty God, in our work here, give us the wisdom to carry out a similar responsibility of supporting and caring for the lives of others. In our family and our work, may our faith cause us to remember that You, the Creator of Life, are the Lord of Life.

May we and other leaders in our State and across our Nation make plans, develop legislation, and so govern that we always respect You alone as God and Lord of Life.

We glorify You, our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Lauren Hyndman, Andrew Kemna, Ashleigh Mellis, Anthony Orlando, Jessica Stafford and Joshua Ward.

Representative Bruns assumed the Chair.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 13

AN ACT

Disapproving the amount of increase in compensation for public officials as recommended by the Missouri Citizen's Commission on Compensation for Elected Officials.

WHEREAS, the voters of Missouri approved a constitutional amendment in 1994 which created a commission charged with setting the amount of compensation paid to statewide elected officials, legislators and judges; and

WHEREAS, Article XIII, Section 3 of the Missouri Constitution charges the Missouri Citizen's Commission on Compensation for Elected Officials with setting the amounts of compensation paid to statewide elected officials, legislators, and judges; and

WHEREAS, the Constitution provides the Commission with a four-month window prior to its constitutional deadline for making salary recommendations to hold public hearings around the state to gather testimony related to salaries for affected state officials and to carefully consider whether pay increases are warranted; and

WHEREAS, in 2006, the Commission did not begin work until eleven days before its December 1, 2006, deadline for submitting a report containing salary recommendations; and

WHEREAS, as few as six members of the twenty-two member Commission attended the public hearings at which testimony on salaries for affected officials was given; and

WHEREAS, the Commission recommended pay increases for state judges and statewide elected officials effective July 1, 2007, and pay increases for legislators effective January 1, 2009; and

WHEREAS, Citizens' Commission on Compensation for Elected Officials attempted to compile a fiscally prudent and responsible compensation schedule that would allow for modest, reasonable increases for all persons affected; and

WHEREAS, the Commission believes that the recommendation accomplishes the twin goals of making the commission function again and rectifying the currently dysfunctional pay system for legislators, statewide elected officials, and judges; and

WHEREAS, when considered as an annual percentage over the years that have passed since any of these officials last received any increase, this report's recommended increases amount to less than a 1% increase per year for all offices; and

WHEREAS, the recommendation establishes a system for consistent future increases in the same manner as other State of Missouri employees; and

WHEREAS, the Commission's recommendations shall take effect unless disapproved by the General Assembly through a concurrent resolution process passed by two-thirds majorities in each legislative chamber before February 1, 2007:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, that the recommendations of the Missouri Citizen's Commission on Compensation of Elected Officials be disapproved.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWELFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

LORD God Almighty, none is as mighty as You; in all things You are faithful.

As we begin our day with over crowded schedules, many seeking our audience, hearing and being heard - we pause to reflect on the priorities of life:

A loving God whose mercies are new every morning: May we receive them gladly.

Loving families who support us in our endeavors: May Your grace be sufficient for their daily journeys.

Needy constituents whose lives hinge on the laws established in this House: Grant us wisdom beyond our years, experience or intellect, that we may make just laws - honoring their trust in us.

Grant us insight and patience that we may not forget or ignore what are the priorities of life as we fulfill our present day callings.

Now may Your Presence be evident among us each moment of this day.

We give thanks for these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Donnie Hays and Juliana Hays.

The Journal of the eleventh day was approved as printed.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Matt Blunt, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS
BY GOVERNOR MATT BLUNT

Lt. Governor Kinder, Mr. President Pro Tem, Mr. Speaker, distinguished state officials, judges of the Supreme Court, members of the General Assembly, reverend clergy, my fellow Missourians:

The tradition of this address began when President George Washington stood before an uncertain legislature, at an uncertain time in our young nation's history, and urged the Congress to prolong this great experiment, "the United States of America," by promoting science and learning.

Two years ago I stood before you at a time of uncertainty in our own state. I asked for your help in re-ordering priorities and returning to fiscal discipline. I asked you to join me in rejecting complacency so that we could create conditions that would lead to prosperity for every Missourian. Tonight, I stand before you pleased to report that because of our work together the days of economic uncertainty are in the past.

Now we have reason for renewed optimism, reason to stand strong with hope for the future. Opportunities are increasing and Missouri families have a better quality of life.

More than 50,000 jobs have been created and Missourians are enjoying greater prosperity.

Fellow Missourians, the state of our state is strong, prosperous, and vibrant.

We cannot and should not rest on these important accomplishments. We must do more!

I have traveled all across our great state. I have talked with Missourians and I have listened. The people are asking us to continue moving the state forward, and their will should guide our efforts.

Mothers and fathers want the financial security that enables them to provide for their children's future. They want the peace of mind that comes from knowing that their children will receive a world class education every time they step into a Missouri classroom; that their children will be protected from predators when they log on to the Internet or ride their bike to the neighborhood park; that they will grow up in a culture that is kind and just; and that they will have access to higher education that will unleash their full potential.

Sons and daughters want to know that their parents and loved ones will be taken care of; that their health care will be of the highest quality; and that their leaders will honor the promises and commitments made to a great generation of Americans.

Grandparents want their grandchildren to live in a decent society, and they want confidence that the values that have made America great will be transmitted to yet another generation. They want to know that we are working to ensure safety in nursing homes and other long-term care facilities; and that we respect and will not cut people's Social Security.

Missouri families want confidence that their government is looking out for their interests instead of its own; that we are pursuing results instead of partisanship; and that we will deliver on pledges and commitments. So let us work together to fulfill promises, beginning with the promise that we will put Missouri families first.

Quality, Affordable Health Care

As I visit with Missouri families, one of their chief concerns, and in many cases one of their greatest worries, is how they will afford health care. Missourians are also very concerned about the sick and the poor.

The old Medicaid system was bankrupting our state but, even more importantly, the old system was failing Missourians who need help. Bad management permitted widespread abuse by providers and ineligible recipients at a cost of hundreds of millions of dollars—money that should have been used for Missouri's most vulnerable citizens. The old system was so bad that Medicaid was even paying for Viagra for sex offenders.

The decisions we made saved Medicaid and set us on a course to dramatically improve care for the sick and poor beginning now.

Since I took office, I have been visiting with Missourians about their health care concerns. Missourians are worried about those who lack insurance. This is my concern as well. Tonight I promise to deliver improved access to affordable health care for every Missourian, and the guarantee that the sick and the poor will be well served.

With the advice and suggestions of many in this Chamber and thousands across our state, we developed Missouri HealthNet to replace the old Medicaid system.

What I propose with Missouri HealthNet is not a minor reform. It is an entirely new system. It will stand apart from what any other state has done or is doing. The Medicaid program we inherited was a paper-based system, basically unchanged from its original 1967 model. HealthNet will put people first. The old Medicaid failed to focus on prevention and wellness. HealthNet will improve the health of the sick and the poor.

The Medicaid we inherited focused on rules and made recipients dependant on checklists and bureaucratic red tape. HealthNet will give Missourians meaningful choices. It will empower them to be participants rather than just recipients. The old Medicaid was about sickness. The new HealthNet will be about prevention and wellness.

With Missouri HealthNet, for the first time in Missouri history we will guarantee that every participant has access to primary and preventative care.

HealthNet recognizes that Missourians should all have one central point of contact and a doctor who knows them personally. HealthNet provides this access by empowering participants to choose their health care home.

I recently had the opportunity to talk with Dr. Heidi Miller, a young doctor who cares for indigent Missourians at Family Care Health Centers in St. Louis. Dr. Miller explained why she believes in the health care home. Dr. Miller described the health care home as a place you know, and a place that knows you. She described the health care home as a place that makes you feel safe, a place where you do not have to explain yourself every time, a place where you can go in your time of need. I agree with Dr. Miller. A health care home offers a place to build relationships, and that is why it is a cornerstone of HealthNet.

HealthNet takes the whole person into account. It will use a health risk assessment to develop a plan of care for improved health and, help to avoid unnecessary emergency room visits and unnecessary hospitalizations.

HealthNet recognizes that some people need more help and attention than others. The most vulnerable participants often have extensive health care needs and they will have the option to participate in the Chronic Care Improvement Program. We are expanding this important program to cover patients with sickle cell disease.

HealthNet also will embrace technology to ensure that all health care information is available to patients and providers in a secure system.

HealthNet recognizes that the old Medicaid did little to reward good providers for improving the health of their patients. Unlike the old Medicaid system, HealthNet will pay providers for results, not just visits or tests. In addition to providing all of these benefits, HealthNet will also give participants incentives.

Perhaps most importantly, HealthNet will empower the participant to make their own healthcare choices. HealthNet will significantly expand the number of participants who are allowed to choose their own health plan or to purchase health insurance. We should provide options for care so participants can choose a health plan that is right for them. And we must unleash the power of the free market by empowering participants to be informed and active consumers. This will drive out cost and lead to higher quality care. My HealthNet proposal expands choice and empowers participants.

Federally Qualified Health Centers already serve as the medical home to nearly 300,000 Missourians, providing comprehensive and quality care in nearly 110 community health centers. These centers are making health care available to uninsured Missourians.

So I have made them a budget priority. Over the last two years you and I have worked together to support the creation of new health centers across the state. We should continue that effort. My budget will provide 60 million dollars for improvements, construction and equipment at community health centers throughout Missouri.

Many employers—particularly small businesses—struggle to pay for the health care of their employees. To those employers who are providing good health benefits: Thank you.

Your support of your employees is appreciated. And that is why I am asking this legislature to cut the franchise tax for businesses that provide health insurance. My plan could eliminate the tax for 87 percent of employers and virtually all of our small businesses paying the tax, but they only qualify if they are providing health benefits to their workers.

More than 5 million Missourians have health insurance, but 700,000 are yet to be covered. I believe that we can dramatically increase the number who have health insurance. Innovative ideas are being discussed in this Capitol. We must work together to reduce the uninsured by employing the following principles:

First, we should combine various resources—federal and state, public and private—to lower the price of insurance.

Second, we should offer incentives to employers that provide health insurance such as the franchise tax cut I outlined.

Third, we should improve our laws so that Missourians can take their insurance with them when they switch jobs.

Fourth, we should pool the purchasing power of the uninsured to help them buy insurance at the lowest possible cost.

Fifth, we should allow employers and employees to pay insurance premiums with tax free dollars.

And sixth, the state should invest money to launch a program taking all of these principles into account and I commit 20 million dollars to launch this initiative.

We can do all of this, and we can make the system work for every single Missourian.

These principles, combined with HealthNet will provide health coverage to more Missourians than ever before in our state's history.

We already have created opportunities for many uninsured by passing legislation to allow small businesses to provide their employees with high quality health care at an affordable price by forming Association Health Plans. Companies that had never before been able to afford health care for their employees were given the ability to purchase quality, affordable health care. And initial premium savings ranged from 18 percent for the largest employers to as much as 40 to 50 percent for small employers. I call on the Congress to enact the same laws and level the playing field for all Americans.

We have a moral obligation to protect the innocent and vulnerable. Our children are among the most vulnerable. As I travel the state, I have visited with family after family that is dealing with autism. Autism Spectrum Disorders affect more lives than pediatric cancer, diabetes and AIDS combined. Early diagnosis of autism dramatically improves the development of children who have the disorder. Fortunately, these autistic disorders can be reliably diagnosed very early in a child's life—sometimes as early as six months. To focus on diagnosis and improvements to autism treatment I am asking you to approve my recommendation of 3.9 million dollars.

Those who have a mental illness or a behavioral disorder also deserve our protection. When parents and families face the difficult decision to place their loved one in the care of the mental health system, they should have the confidence that the state provides them with a safe and nurturing environment. I created the Mental Health Task Force in June, 2006 to help us all improve safety.

I recently signed an Executive Order that implements several Task Force recommendations. In order to implement even more recommendations immediately, my budget includes 2.6 million dollars.

Together we will prevent these instances of abuse and neglect and ensure that those who mistreat the vulnerable are held accountable and punished.

Seniors also can be vulnerable, and we have a moral obligation to them. They raised and instructed us, so it is up to us to pay them back for their love and sacrifice. We can do that by helping Missouri seniors stay in their homes longer, which results in a higher quality of life for them and reduced costs for taxpayers. If you approve my budget we will have increased in-home care funding by 53 million dollars.

Let us also make it easier for Missourians to plan for retirement. I ask you to provide full tax deductibility for all long term care insurance costs.

Help me continue rooting out waste, fraud and abuse. Before I came to office the Medicaid system was being drained by fraud and abuse that took advantage of poor enforcement. We have saved more than 230 million dollars by ending much of this theft. These savings have made it easier for us to take care of vulnerable Missourians. Tonight, I renew my call for a strict false-claims act that will allow my administration to even more effectively fight fraud.

World Class Education

As you all know, my budgets place schools, classrooms, teachers and students first. Two years ago, we embarked on a shared journey to improve the quality of public education for every child in the state of Missouri. Together, we have rewritten the formula to fund our schools; embraced innovation and I have fought for change.

As promised, we have increased funding for public education each year I have been in office. In the midst of an inherited budget disaster, we still increased funding. In fact, education increases have exceeded the rate of inflation in each and every budget I have recommended and in each and every budget I have signed.

This year, my highest priority remains getting more resources to our classrooms, our teachers, and most importantly, our students.

Working together we already have invested 332 million new dollars in elementary and secondary schools. This year I am calling for 214 million additional dollars for our classrooms, bringing the total increase in funding to more than half a billion dollars in the last three years.

Of course, in addition to financial investments, preparing our students to compete in the global economy requires good policy. To begin, we must focus tax dollars around areas of critical concern. Today, 36 percent of Missouri's college freshmen require basic remedial courses in college. In college, they are being taught skills they should have learned in high school or even junior high. Taxpayers should not have to pay twice for the same classes. Parents have told me that they are concerned about this, and they are worried about the good family-supporting jobs around the country that are being moved overseas.

As countries such as China and India move more and more of their citizens into advanced studies, this challenge will only grow. Missouri is no longer just competing with states like Kansas and Illinois, but we are now in the global economy competing with India and Singapore, Shanghai and Hong Kong. If we are to make Missouri families even more prosperous, we must ensure that students are equipped with advanced skills in math and science.

Technology helps improve skills and spark student interest in math and science. That is why my budget includes 2.9 million dollars to fund 100 technology classrooms in 100 different schools.

For too long, the hours between 3:00 in the afternoon and 6:00 in the evening have been the most dangerous for our children. That is one reason I have been encouraging the expansion of after school programs. These programs provide a safe haven for children and opportunities for students to participate in math and science enrichment activities that the regular school day may not allow. To support these programs my budget includes 1 million dollars to expand quality after school programs in math and science, as well as physical activity and health.

I also recently announced the third consecutive year of increased funding for Parents as Teachers. I did so because early childhood education is a great investment for the future. Recently, I convened the first meeting of the Coordinating Board for Early Childhood. They will be a valuable resource as we work to strengthen opportunities for Missouri children.

Good education policy demands that we confront difficult problems head on. As you know, the St. Louis City school district is failing our children. It is failing to provide a basic education to thousands of young Missourians. For me, no option is off the table and I am willing to work with anybody who cares about our children.

We also owe it to families across the state to ease access to college and ensure students get an education and not just a degree. Higher education, whether it be in a community college or a four year institution, is a sound investment that helps to secure a higher quality of life for the next generation.

Unfortunately, literacy among college graduates has actually declined in the last decade. Employers express concern regarding the skill level of graduates applying for jobs. This is unacceptable. Missouri's colleges and universities need to be accountable to taxpayers. I am calling upon the Coordinating Board for Higher Education to create standards and measure performance. Funding for higher education should be tied to colleges and universities meeting those standards.

College costs must be controlled and tuition must be more predictable. To help the family budget, I propose that only in extraordinary circumstances should the Coordinating Board for Higher Education be able to authorize an exception to this rule: No tuition increase should exceed the rate of inflation.

The state must support higher education, and this year, my budget will send 40 million new dollars to colleges and universities. My three year plan will increase funding by more than 110 million dollars. Significantly, we can also make it easier for Missourians to go to college by increasing need-based scholarship funding from 27.5 million dollars to more than 72.5 million dollars.

Additionally, 3.4 million dollars will be added to recruit students into the health care professions and to forgive loans for students who are preparing to be Missouri doctors, dentists, and nurses.

But our effort to deliver a world class education must not stop there. Missouri college students are learning math and science skills in labs and classrooms that are out of date. Talented Missourians interested in entering competitive industries are leaving Missouri for institutions with state of the art facilities. Every one of our campuses has significant capital improvement needs that, if completed, would help ensure that Missouri students are receiving a world class education here at home.

To address those needs I developed the Lewis and Clark Discovery Initiative, which is a partnership between the Missouri Higher Education Loan Authority and the state. Through this Initiative we can sell loans held by people in other states and bring 335 million dollars home to strengthen our colleges and universities for our students.

Missouri's colleges and universities have been waiting far too long for this critical boost in quality. Each additional day that we wait means increased costs. I ask you to act with urgency and approve the Lewis and Clark Discovery Initiative.

We owe it to every Missourian to provide a world class education that will unleash their God-given potential.

Family-supporting Jobs

We also owe it to Missourians to foster an economic climate that creates good family-supporting jobs. We promised that we would work to do that. Missourians have responded to the pro-growth, pro-job policies we have enacted, and since January 2005 Missourians have created more than 53,000 new jobs, 279 businesses per week, and higher per capita personal income.

Part of promoting that healthy economic climate was passing frivolous-lawsuit reform. The old system encouraged frivolous lawsuits and made it difficult to protect Missourians' access to health care because well-trained doctors were fleeing the state due to skyrocketing insurance premiums.

In 2005 we passed legislation that made it much more difficult to file frivolous lawsuits. This has enabled us to recruit and retain doctors, increased the quality of care, and reduced the cost of doing business.

In the past the state often subsidized businesses that paid low wages and did not provide health benefits. In 2005 we enacted the Missouri Quality Jobs Act which centers our economic development on the creation of family supporting jobs with good wages and health care benefits. The Quality Jobs Initiative is the most important economic development tool that we have ever had. So I am asking you to double its capacity to create even more family-supporting jobs.

The Internet is transforming our lives. It is increasing productivity and adding to our quality of life, but not all Missourians have access to this valuable tool. We must promote policies encouraging investment so that we can deliver high speed Internet to more Missourians—whether wealthy or poor; young or old; in our largest cities or on our most remote farms.

When government allows businesses to compete, Missourians see lower prices, and more choices. So I am asking you to enact legislation that creates competition for all companies that want to provide telecommunications and cable services.

I also urge you to change the law so that Missouri families get to keep more of their own income. President Roosevelt signed the Social Security Act so that, in America, growing older did not mean you had to be poor. Yet, the state taxes people's well earned Social Security benefits. This is not a problem that we created, but it is another problem that we can solve. The Social Security tax is a Social Security cut. So let us stop the cut and allow Missouri seniors to keep the Social Security they have earned. I urge you to take up, pass, and allow me to sign Speaker Jetton's legislation to stop cutting people's Social Security.

Honoring Our Veterans

Many seniors are of that great generation of Americans who defeated the forces of tyranny in the Second World War. As a veteran, I am proud to lead a state that respects those who wear the uniform today. We must do our best to honor the brave men and women of our Armed Forces. They volunteered to endure blood, sweat and tears, and to do this all to protect and extend the frontier of freedom. With your support we have already been able to achieve a great deal for our veterans and their families.

We enacted legislation to prevent hateful protests at the funeral services of fallen soldiers. Because of this law, and the vigorous enforcement by our police, sheriffs and Highway Patrol, the families of our men and women in uniform are able to honor our military heroes.

With your help we also established the Guard at Home program, which is helping the families of deployed guard members and reservists avoid economic hardship. Once our guard members and reservists return home, the Guard at Home Program will help them get back into the civilian workforce.

But we need to do more. I am also asking you to streamline the process for qualified veterans who apply for or renew a professional license.

These brave Missourians have stood up for democracy. It is our duty to stand up for them. That is why my budget will send an additional 6.2 million dollars to support veterans' homes and 4.5 million new dollars for better equipment.

The Sanctity of Life

Remarkably, it was only in the last two centuries that democracy became the preferred form of government. In that time, however, one of the defining traits of democracy has been a concern for what we refer to as a society's "culture." No society can remain civilized if it does not concern itself with the respect and courtesy that is shown to one another, how it perceives the family, and how it treats its most vulnerable.

Missourians know that a coarsening of our culture undermines human dignity. In stark contrast to cultural relativism stands the belief that all of humanity is bound together by a moral fabric. There is, indeed, an enduring moral order and our policies should reflect our basic values.

We have enacted laws that move us in the right direction. We are fortunate to live in a state that has protected traditional marriage and enshrined that protection in the constitution. Since I came to office we have also been able to enact important laws that make Missouri a national leader in protecting human life. We created an income tax credit for pregnancy resource centers. We also strengthened parental consent laws to ensure that Missouri parents are involved in the most critical decisions that their young children make.

This year we must continue to protect the innocent and pass legislation that reflects our common values. I ask you to approve the 200,000 dollars in new funding that I have recommended for the Alternatives to Abortion program, and I also urge you to place this program in statute and make it permanent.

Protecting Society from Violent Crime

The fundamental responsibility of government is to protect life and liberty. Ensuring the safety of our children is at the center of this obligation. That is why last year we passed Missouri's version of Jessica's Law. It mandates a life sentence with at least 30 years served for those predators who commit the most egregious crimes against young children. This law is one of the toughest in the nation. We have sent a clear message to child predators. If they commit such a crime in Missouri, we will put them behind bars for a very long time and if they ever get out of prison we will watch them for the rest of their life.

The Internet has opened up a whole new world of information. Unfortunately, terrible people have put it to terrible use. Some are using the Internet to lure our children into dangerous and potentially fatal situations.

The ability to catch these criminals and prosecute them is critical to enforcing the tough provisions of Jessica's Law. Fortunately, Jessica's Law created the Cyber Crime Grant Program. This year I am asking you to double the funding for this valuable program and approve an additional 250,000 dollars to help Internet crime fighters buy the equipment they need to track down these predators.

Our ability to protect our children depends on three things: tough laws, great law enforcement, and vigilant citizens. Thankfully we have them all. As you all know, Mitchell Hults gave law enforcement the information they needed to rescue Shawn Hornbeck and Ben Ownby. Because of his vigilance, these families have been reunited. Mitchell Hults is here tonight. Please join me in honoring a Missouri hero, Mitchell Hults.

Public safety involves more than just vigorous enforcement of our criminal laws. Governments, charities, churches and the Missouri National Guard must work together to overcome natural disasters. Missourians are kind, compassionate and generous people. We look out for one another. The ongoing recovery from the ice storms is only the latest case of Missouri meeting the challenge of an unexpected disaster.

Missourians who have had to endure multiple outages deserve real answers and effective solutions. I am calling on electric utilities to evaluate the damage caused by the ice storms and take appropriate preventive action.

Law-abiding Missourians should not be punished when they use force to defend themselves and their families in their own home. I urge you to pass legislation that protects Missourians when they defend themselves from attack. I also ask you to pass legislation that guarantees Missourians will retain their Second Amendment rights, especially in times of emergency.

Like all of you, I still remember learning the story of the Good Samaritan—the story of a man who acted as a neighbor to a perfect stranger. In emergencies we are blessed to have doctors, nurses and others who volunteer to help. These volunteers should not be punished for their generosity. I urge you to pass legislation that protects volunteers from frivolous lawsuits when they are acting as Good Samaritans.

Murderers inflict incomprehensible pain and suffering when they take the life of a police officer, sheriff, corrections officer, or state trooper. So I am asking you to pass legislation that makes the death penalty mandatory in cases involving the murder of a law enforcement officer.

Agriculture and Renewable Fuels

A grave national security threat is a reliance on oil imported from nations that despise our country, hate our values and want to harm innocent Americans. The production of renewable fuels is one of Missouri agriculture's greatest success stories. In the same way that Missouri's farmers rose to a great challenge and fed the world in the last century, this century's Missouri farmers will answer another noble calling and fuel America.

The use of ethanol blended fuel helps family farmers and it leads to improved air quality. Last year you passed, and I signed, legislation requiring that virtually all gasoline sold in Missouri contain 10 percent ethanol by January 1 of next year.

With your help I have already proposed and signed budgets that included full funding for the biodiesel and ethanol incentive funds as well as funding for back payments from previous years that were not honored before I assumed office.

This year's budget fully funds the biodiesel and ethanol incentives and I further propose that we fulfill all outstanding payments in the supplemental budget.

We have passed laws to limit government and protect freedom in the past. I know we can do it again this year. In 2005, the United States Supreme Court ruled that local governments can take property and give it to private developers. It was a terrible ruling. In response, we enacted strong legislation to protect Missourians from losing their homes and farms in the name of commercial development. The American Farm Bureau calls Missouri's law the Gold Standard for protecting property rights.

This legislation was a bold step for all home and property owners. Now we need to stand up again for the rights of our farmers. The 100,000 plus Missouri family farms must be protected from abusive lawsuits. Missourians who have been farming for years and generations should have the right to work the land. They should not be burdened with unreasonable ordinances designed to chase them out of farming. So that Missouri farm families can continue to produce the food and fiber that is so vital to feeding families here at home and around the world, I urge you to pass the Missouri Farm and Food Preservation Act.

Safe and Modern Transportation

If you have driven anywhere in Missouri in the last two years, you have probably seen some new construction. If you are like me, it has probably made you late a time or two. But the inconvenience has been worth it. Early last month MoDOT delivered a total of 2,200 miles of safer, smoother and better roads. Fewer Missourians lost their lives traveling on our roads last year. Missourians now travel more safely, with less wear and tear on their vehicles and less time in traffic.

My administration's road improvements will not end with the Smooth Roads Initiative. I fully support MoDOT's new initiative which will improve 5,600 miles of major highways over the next five years. Every Missourian will benefit from this effort.

Respecting People's Hard-Earned Dollars

The budget I am submitting is balanced. Our fiscal situation is dramatically improved from when I stood before you two years ago. We did not achieve this progress by taking an easy road. Because we were responsible in the past, we can make critical investments and stop cutting the Social Security benefits of our seniors.

We do have a surplus. But it is the people's surplus, and we must use it wisely. We cannot create new ongoing costs by expanding government. We cannot recreate the spending dilemma that we faced two years ago. We need to give the people of Missouri a government that is responsible so that Missouri families can move forward together.

The budget I submit to you provides a 200 million dollar ending balance to fund key priorities including education and healthcare in future fiscal years.

The budget I recommend continues the course of fiscal responsibility. It is balanced and it does not raise taxes. It reflects the common sense priorities of the people of Missouri.

A New Age of Prosperity

Together we play a vital role in shaping the future. Together we can demonstrate the strength of our leadership by giving Missourians the opportunity to experience the full promise of American life. We have it within our power to lay the foundation for an age of unprecedented prosperity for every Missourian.

Together we can show the strength of our character as we allow Missourians to keep and enjoy the prosperity they earned—by replacing broken and outdated government programs with effective initiatives to serve the sick and the poor, by lowering the tax burden on Missourians, especially our seniors, and by giving every child in Missouri an education that will serve as the first rung on a ladder to achieving their own prosperity and a bright future.

We must do this because as Thomas Jefferson said, "the happiness and prosperity of our citizens is the only legitimate object of government." We can do this because there is no limit to what the people of Missouri can achieve when they have the freedom to succeed.

Thank you. May God bless you and may God continue to bless the great state of Missouri.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Shields.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Committee on Ethics, Chairman Dempsey reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Ethics, begs leave to report that pursuant to Rule 36 of the House Rules it has adopted Rules of Procedure and hereby submits said Rules of Procedure in the form of a House Resolution and recommends that it has examined the same and recommends that House Resolution No. 267 be adopted.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 267 ETHICS COMMITTEE RULES OF PROCEDURE

RULE 1. Scope and Authority

These Rules of Procedure govern the conduct of the investigation of complaints of ethical misconduct by a member of the House and are adopted pursuant to House Rule 36.

RULE 2. Definitions

As used in these Rules, unless the context requires otherwise, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, and the use of masculine gender shall include the feminine.

(1) Censure - A sanction which recognizes the respondent's conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong, and which shall include punishment in the form of denying privileges of office, which recommendation is included as part of the committee's report and requires the presence of the respondent in the chamber during consideration and vote by the entire House on such resolution.

(2) Letter of Reproval - A sanction which expresses disapproval of conduct based on the appropriateness of such conduct by a legislator, regardless of whether the conduct constitutes a legal or moral wrong and is included as part of the committee's report.

(3) Reprimand - A sanction which recognizes the respondent's conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong and which may include punishment in the form of denying privileges of the office, which recommendation is included as part of the committee's report, is issued by the Speaker and the recommendation for reprimand is made a public record.

RULE 3. Quorum

A quorum exists when a majority of the members of the Committee are present.

RULE 4. Form of Complaints

A. All complaints filed with the Speaker against a member of the House shall be made by a member. The complaints shall be confidential and shall be referred to the Committee on Ethics within ten (10) days and shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth in simple, concise and direct statements:

(1) The name and legal address of the member or members acting as complainant;

(2) The name of the member of the House alleged to have engaged in the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office or other acts constituting ethical misconduct. "Misconduct" means:

(a) Any conduct constituting a legal or moral wrong which materially impairs the member's ability to perform the duties of his office or substantially impairs public confidence in the General Assembly;

- (b) Any conduct constituting a conflict of interest under Chapter 105, RSMo;
- (c) The intentional filing of a false complaint or the filing of a complaint in reckless disregard of the truth.
- (3) The nature of the alleged crime, misconduct, neglect, corruption or other unethical act, including when applicable, the specific law, rule, regulation or ethical standard violated;
- (4) The facts alleged to have given rise to the violation; and
- (5) Where the facts are alleged upon the information and belief of the complainant, the complaint shall so state and set forth the basis for such information and belief.

B. All documents in the possession of the complainant that are relevant to and in support of the allegations shall be appended to the complaint.

RULE 5. Initial Examination of the Complaint by the Committee

A. Within thirty (30) days of the assignment of the complaint by the Speaker, the Committee shall determine if it is in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules, and whether on the face of the complaint, the allegations contained therein are within the jurisdiction of the Committee, and if so, whether the allegations merit proceeding to a preliminary hearing. The complainant shall not act as a member of the Committee at a hearing in which the complainant is likely to be called as a necessary witness. A respondent shall not act as a member of the Committee for purposes of his complaint.

B. Complaints determined not to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules shall be returned to the complainant with a general statement that it is not in compliance with the Rules of Procedure. The complaint may be resubmitted in the proper form.

C. Once a determination has been made that the complaint complies with Rule 4 of these Rules, a majority of the Committee appointed shall vote by roll call to either:

- (1) Defer action pending completion of any other administrative, disciplinary, commission, or judicial proceeding;
- (2) Proceed to a preliminary hearing;
- (3) Dismiss the complaint. When a motion to proceed to a preliminary hearing fails on a recorded vote, the complaint shall be immediately dismissed.

D. In determining whether or not to proceed the Committee shall consider the following:

- (1) The credible evidence contained in the complaint or appended thereto of the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, or other acts violating applicable ethical standards;
- (2) Other administrative or disciplinary action by other interested bodies;
- (3) Criminal investigation, Missouri Ethics Commission proceeding, or judicial proceedings, either civil or criminal; and
- (4) Other relevant circumstances that would justify expediting, declining or deferring action by the Committee.

E. Complaints determined to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules and accepted for a preliminary hearing shall be transmitted to the respondent with a copy of the Rules of Procedure and notice in writing that the respondent has twenty-one (21) calendar days to respond to the complaint either by way of answer or motion pursuant to Rule 6 of these Rules. The complainant shall also be notified, in writing, of the action of the Committee. Examination of the complaint and the determination of Rule 5.C. shall be conducted in a closed meeting.

RULE 6. Answers and Motions

A. If the Committee determines that the complaint merits proceeding to a preliminary hearing, the respondent shall have twenty-one (21) calendar days in which to respond to the complaint by way of answer or motion, unless this time period is waived by the respondent. Any answer or motion shall be in writing, signed by the respondent and his counsel, if he has one, and shall be limited to the following:

(1) An admission or denial under oath, of the allegations set forth in the complaint, including negative and affirmative defenses, and any other relevant information, including supporting evidence which the respondent may desire to submit;

(2) An objection to the jurisdiction of the Committee to investigate the complaint; or

(3) An objection to the participation of any member of the Committee in an investigation of the complaint on the grounds that the member cannot render an impartial and unbiased decision in the case. The majority of the members present shall rule on the objection to the participation of any member of the Committee. A temporary replacement shall be made to serve on the Committee on Ethics for all actions concerning a particular complaint for any member of the Committee who is prevented from acting on a complaint under these rules.

B. Any motion submitted pursuant to this rule is not in lieu of an answer and shall be accompanied by a memorandum of points and authorities. Answers or motions not submitted within the twenty-one (21) calendar-day period shall not be considered by the Committee.

C. The Chairman of the Committee shall pass upon such motions as soon as practicable and notice of the decision shall be furnished to the respondent and the complainant. A motion to quash a subpoena shall be decided by the Chairman of the Committee.

D. Time limitations imposed by this Rule may be extended when, in the discretion of the Chairman, such extension would facilitate a fair and complete inquiry and may be shortened when the Chairman determines that there are special circumstances compelling expedition, and upon twenty-four (24) hours notice of said action to the respondent and the claimant.

E. In the event that a special counsel is retained by the Committee, the attorney-client privilege is applicable to the Committee and not to the House.

RULE 7. Preliminary Hearings

A. A preliminary hearing may be held to hear arguments based on the pleadings submitted in the case. The preliminary hearing shall be an open meeting. The committee shall provide the complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent an opportunity to present, orally or in writing, a statement, which shall be under oath or affirmation, regarding the allegations and any other relevant questions arising out of the pleadings. A Complainant or respondent who is represented by counsel shall not be questioned in the absence of counsel unless an explicit waiver is obtained.

B. The committee shall require that testimony be given under oath or affirmation. The form of the oath or affirmation shall be: "Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that the testimony you will give before this Committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?" The oath or affirmation shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths. Members of the committee shall be given an opportunity to question the complainant and respondent or counsel for the complainant or respondent following the opening statements.

C. At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, a majority of the Committee shall vote by roll call to either:

- (1) Dismiss the complaint, or
- (2) Proceed by
 - (a) undertaking an investigative hearing; or
 - (b) deciding the case based upon the preliminary hearing.

A decision based upon a preliminary hearing shall require the consent of the respondent.

D. If the committee decides to make a summary decision of the case and the respondent accepts this disposition the Committee may, by a majority vote, recommend one of the following sanctions:

- (1) Letter of reproof;
- (2) Reprimand; or
- (3) Censure.

RULE 8. Investigative Hearings

A. An investigative hearing may be held on the record to receive evidence upon which to base findings, conclusions, and recommendations, if any, to the House. The Committee may require, by subpoena or otherwise, or by subpoena duces tecum, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers and documents as it deems necessary. The Committee may obtain a court-issued subpoena in the event that any person refuses to obey the subpoena issued by the Committee.

B. Prior to setting a hearing date and issuing subpoenas for witnesses, the Committee shall resolve the scope and purpose of the hearings. A copy of this statement of scope and purpose shall be furnished to all witnesses. During the course of the hearings the Committee may expand or contract the scope in light of evidence received.

C. The order of the investigative hearing shall be as follows:

- (1) The Chairman shall open the hearing by stating the Committee's authority to conduct the investigation, the purpose of the investigation and its scope.
- (2) The complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent shall be permitted to make opening statements. Such opening statements shall not exceed fifteen minutes.
- (3) Testimony from witnesses and other evidence pertinent to the matter under investigation shall be received in the following order:
 - (a) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the complainant;
 - (b) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the respondent;
 - (c) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the Committee staff; and
 - (d) Rebuttal witnesses.
- (4) The Chairman or his designee shall examine each witness. The Committee members may then question the witness. The respondent or his counsel may then cross-examine the witness. Redirect or recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion. With respect to witnesses offered by the respondent, a witness shall be examined first by the respondent or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the complainant or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the Chairman or his designee. Committee members may then question the witness. Redirect and recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion.

D. Testimony of all witnesses shall be taken under oath. The form of the oath shall be: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you will give before this Committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?" The oath shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths.

RULE 9. Admissibility of Evidence

A. The object of the hearings shall be to ascertain the truth. Any evidence that is relevant and probative shall be admissible, unless privileged or unless the Constitution otherwise requires its exclusion. Objections going only to the weight that should be given to evidence will not justify its exclusion.

B. The Chairman or other member presiding shall rule upon any question of admissibility of testimony or evidence presented to the Committee. The Chairman or other member presiding may limit the presentation of repetitious evidence. Rulings shall be final unless reversed or modified by a majority vote of the Committee members present.

C. At an investigative hearing, the burden of proof is on the complainant with respect to each count to establish the facts alleged therein clearly and convincingly by the evidence that he introduces.

RULE 10. Witnesses

A. A subpoena to a witness shall be served sufficiently in advance of his scheduled appearance to allow him a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Committee, to prepare for the hearing and to employ counsel should he so desire.

B. Except as otherwise specifically authorized by the Chairman, no member of the Committee or staff shall make public the name of any witness subpoenaed by the Committee before his scheduled appearance.

C. Witnesses at investigative hearings may be accompanied by their counsel for the purpose of advising them concerning their constitutional rights and to raise objections to procedures or to the admissibility of testimony and evidence. Counsel for a witness other than the respondent shall not be permitted to engage in oral argument with the Committee. After a witness has testified, his counsel may submit to the Committee, in writing, any questions he wishes propounded to his client and any request for additional witnesses or other evidence. Such request may be granted in the discretion of the Committee.

D. The respondent may apply to the Committee for the issuance of subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses or the production of documents on his behalf. The application shall be granted upon good cause shown by the respondent that the proposed testimony or evidence is relevant and not otherwise available. The application shall be denied if not made at a reasonable time or if the testimony or evidence would be merely cumulative.

E. The respondent is entitled to present witnesses in his behalf. However, the Chairman may limit such testimony when, in his discretion, he finds the testimony is repetitious or cumulative.

F. Each witness subpoenaed by the Committee shall be reimbursed for those reasonable expenses approved by the Committee.

G. Each witness shall be furnished a printed copy of the Rules of Procedure and the pertinent provisions of the Rules of the House applicable to the rights of witnesses.

H. Within ten (10) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the Chairman shall notify the respondent, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear before the Committee. Within five (5) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the respondent shall notify the Committee, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear in his behalf. Additional witnesses may be brought before the Committee, in the discretion of the Chairman or other member presiding and upon good cause, if their whereabouts or existence were unknown to the respondent at the time for submission of the witness list to Committee.

RULE 11. Findings, Conclusions and Recommendations

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FOURTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 29, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Gracious Heavenly Father, we thank You that You advise those who fear You and reveal to them the intent of Your promise. Our eyes are continually on You Lord God. You remove our feet from the mine fields of deception and self-interest.

We pray for faith that overcomes fear, compassion that overcomes anger, integrity that sustains standards and values, fellowship that divides burdens, and laughter that lifts the soul.

May Your peace that passes all understanding dwell richly in our hearts. We pray Your grace and mercy, which is sufficient, to carry us through each minute of our day.

Look upon us with Your love and kindness. Direct our thoughts and words. Forgive us when they are abrasive, insensitive and unadvised.

We ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

*Frost and chill, bless the Lord;
Praise and exalt Him above all forever.
Ice and snow, bless the Lord;
Praise and exalt Him above all forever.
(Daniel 3:69-70)*

Almighty God, we thank You for the frost and chill, which helps us to be bright and alert for the work of the day.

Holy God, You incline toward us and hear us when we call out to You. During the various committee hearings of this week, give us the ability to give our attention to others and hear them. Bless us with ears to hear Your Word, and to recognize it as Your Word when it is spoken by others.

We pray for the gift of hearing with discernment, that we might distinguish right from wrong, good from evil, truth from that which is less than true.

Be with us this day with the grace we need to do Your will. We honor and glorify You, Almighty God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ariell Alexandria Tillman, Ashlee Kristea Ross, Robert Jacobs, Daliesha Lee, Jasmine Leech, Deriek Thomas, Berkley Roloff, Morgan Willis, Taya White, Brayden Hudgins, Logan Chavez, Jalen Washington, Daron Powell, Chris Warlick, Cranston Mills, Kenyon Jackson, Neokoli Jamison, Kendra Townsend, Shaunyce Weekly, Jasmine Ive, Marteze Joseph, SaSavia Thompson, Parker Harmon, Nekiesha Bailey, Kylie Thompson, Cody Dang, Aliyaa Smith, Makala Shields, Darrian Jones and Darris Williams.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Matt Blunt

Dear Mr. Crumbliss,

I wish to advise you of my employment as an attorney with the law firm of Shook, Hardy & Bacon, LLP. I have no ownership interest in this firm, and the fees earned by other attorneys in the firm do not impact my salary.

There are well over 500 attorneys in this law firm, many of which may represent parties with an interest in proposed legislation. In the majority of these cases, I will not even be aware of this representation, as clients of my employer exceed ten thousand and change daily. Some attorneys in my firm may provide some legal representative to parties that may be impacted by decisions made by the Missouri General Assembly. The representations exists in several states and change rapidly, so the identification of each attorney/client relationship cannot be specific.

To the extent that a particular piece of legislation directly impacts an entity that I know to be a client of my firm, in a manner different than it impacts other similarly situated entities in that industry, I will abstain from voting on the proposal.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

/s/ Rep. Brian Yates

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

O LORD our God, You are magnificent. You are clothed in splendor and majesty.

You cause the birds to nest beside the streams and sing among the branches of the trees. You send rain on the mountains from Your heavenly home, and You fill the earth with the fruit of Your labor. You cause grass to grow for the livestock and plants for people to use. You allow us to produce food from the earth. You made the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows when to set. You send the darkness, and it becomes night. Yet we go off to our work, where we labor until evening ignoring the beauty of Your creation.

May we not go robotically about our day missing a sunrise or sunset, the singing of a bird, the briskness of a cold winter morning or the necessity of a moment of quiet reflection and thanksgiving. You created all things for our pleasure.

We do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will take care of itself. Our trust is in You, the living God. You will keep us safe.

May we rest in Your mercy.

As we ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifteenth day was approved as printed.

Representative Pratt assumed the Chair.

D. Adam Crumbliss, Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol, Room 306C
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Crumbliss:

I wish to advise you of my employment as an Of Counsel with the law firm of Shook, Hardy & Bacon, LLP. I have no ownership interest in this firm, and the fees earned by other attorneys in the firm do not impact my salary.

There are well over 500 attorneys in this law firm, many of which may represent parties with interest in proposed legislation. In the majority of these cases, I will not even be aware of this representation, as clients of my employer exceed ten thousand and change daily. Some attorneys in my firm may provide some legal representation to parties that may be impacted by decisions made by the Missouri General Assembly. The representations exist in several states and change rapidly, so the identification of each attorney/client relationship cannot be specific.

I am also a volunteer board member of Crittenton Children's Center of the St. Luke's Health System, which may conduct business with the State of Missouri.

To the extent that a conflict of interest exists under Missouri law, I will abstain from voting on the proposal.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Bryan Pratt

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Nieves in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, today's disagreeable weather continues to remind us there are many things we cannot control. Inspire in us the virtue of humility, that we may bow before You as the all-powerful One and Lord of all things.

We ask Your blessing upon those who have already worked long hours today, making the highways and streets safe for us and for all the people. Be with all who drive the highways today; may Your Holy Spirit keep them alert and at their best.

May this same Holy Spirit inspire us to complete our work of this week with such integrity that our very work gives You honor and glory. At the end of today's work, be with us as we travel to the warmth and love of our homes. Bless all who dwell there! Bless all the people we serve!

We humbly pray to You who are our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Lord God, Your splendor covers the heavens, Your glory fills the earth. Your brightness is like the sunlight; rays stream from Your hand, and there [in the sun like splendor] is the hiding place of Your power.

There are days when our best efforts seem to bear no fruit, when vigorous debates end in a stalemate, numerous hearings yield no movement and times when support diminishes and hope dwindles. We continue, anyway, because You LORD are the source of our strength. You give us the determination to forge ahead and complete the task. You enable us to negotiate the rugged terrain. You, ultimately, bless the work of our hand and grant us success.

May we not be hasty in word or impulsive in thought to bring up a matter before contemplating its impact. Grant us the proper words to speak at the appropriate time; until then, may our words be few.

Now, Lord God, may the meditation of our heart be pleasing to You as we enjoy Your daily provision.

We ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the seventeenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

COMMUNICATION

Mr. Adam Crumbliss, Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol, Room 306C
Jefferson City, MO 65101

RE: Possible Personal Interest in Legislation

Dear Chief Clerk Crumbliss:

Pursuant to Section 105.461, RSMo, I am hereby filing a written letter of a possible personal interest in legislation that may be voted on during this legislative session.

As an employee on the administrative side of Lindenwood University, I deal with processing government grants, scholarships, and the majority of student loans for my assigned students from Lindenwood University. One of the main requirements of my job is to make sure that the students receive the best possible grants, scholarships, or student loans they qualify for. Possible legislation regarding grants, scholarships and student loans could impact certain aspects of my employment that could come to the Missouri House of Representatives.

In compliance with Section 105.461, RSMo, would you please publish this letter in the Missouri House of Representatives Journal. If you have any questions, please call my office and I will be more than happy to answer them for you. Thank you for your time and help in this matter.

Respectfully Yours,

/s/ Rep. Joe Smith

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINETEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Holy Spirit of God,
Come to us, remain with us,
And enlighten our hearts.

Guide us by Your wisdom,
Support us by Your power,
For You are God.

You desire justice for all.
Enable us to uphold the rights of others;
Do not allow us to be misled by ignorance
Or corrupted by fear or favor.

Unite us to Yourself in the bond of love
And keep us faithful to all that is true.

May we temper justice with love
So that all our decisions
May be pleasing to You,
And earn the reward
Promised to good and faithful servants.

You live and reign, the one God,
Forever and ever. Amen!

Further amend same section, Page 6, Line 7, by deleting the number “13” and inserting in lieu thereof “14”; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Schaaf, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Burnett offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 353, Page 6, Section 191.907, Lines 1-14, by deleting said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"191.907. 1. Any person may bring a civil action in the name of the state to recover losses that the state suffers from a violation of sections 191.900 to 191.910. In an action brought under this section, a person who violates subsection 1 to 3 of section 191.905 is liable as provided by subsection 11 of section 191.905. The amount of any civil penalty assessed by the court under this section shall be reduced by the amount of any civil monetary penalty which the person establishes that he or she has paid under the laws of the United States for a violation of 31 U.S.C. section 3729, et seq., as long as such violation is based on the same underlying facts upon which the state action was brought. At the time of filing the complaint, the person shall deliver a copy of the complaint and written disclosure of all material evidence and information the person possesses to the state attorney general. The complaint shall be filed in camera, shall remain under seal for at least one hundred and twenty days, and shall not be served upon the defendant until the court so orders. The attorney general may elect to intervene and proceed with the action within sixty days after it receives both the complaint and the material evidence and information. During the period in which the complaint is under seal, the attorney general may elect to initiate discussions with the accused provider in an attempt to facilitate a resolution of the claim prior to the commencement of judicial proceedings.

2. The attorney general may, for good cause shown, move the court for an extension of the time during which the complaint remains under seal, as provided by subsection 1 of this section. Any such motion may be supported by affidavits or other submissions in camera.

3. Before the expiration of the one hundred and twenty day period or any extensions obtained under subsection 2 of this section, the attorney general shall:

(1) Notify the court and the person initiating the action that it will proceed with the action, in which case the action shall be conducted by the attorney general; or

(2) Notify the court that it declines to take over the action, in which case the action shall be dismissed, notwithstanding any objection by the person initiating the action.

4. When a person files an action under this section, no person other than the attorney general shall intervene or bring a related action based on the facts underlying the pending action.

5. If the attorney general elects to proceed with the action, he or she shall have the primary responsibility for conducting the action, and shall not be bound by any act of the person initiating the action. Such person shall have the right to continue as a party to the action, subject to the limitations set forth in subsection 8 of this section.

6. The attorney general may voluntarily dismiss the action notwithstanding the objections of the person initiating the action, but only if that person has been notified of and offered the opportunity to participate in a hearing on the motion to dismiss.

7. The attorney general may settle the action, notwithstanding the objections of the person initiating the action, but only if that person has been notified of and offered the opportunity to participate in a hearing on the settlement, and if the court determines that the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under the circumstances.

8. Upon a showing by the attorney general that unrestricted participation during the course of the litigation by the person initiating the action would interfere with or unduly delay the attorney general's prosecution of the case, or would be repetitious, irrelevant, or unduly harassing, the court may, in its discretion, impose limitations on the person's participation, such as:

(1) Limiting the number of witnesses the person may call;

(2) Limiting the length of the testimony of witnesses;

(3) Limiting the person's cross-examination of witnesses; or

(4) Otherwise limiting the participation by the person in the litigation.

Upon a showing by the defendant that unrestricted participation during the course of the litigation by the person initiating the action would be unduly harassing, or would cause the defendant undue burden or unnecessary expense, the court may limit the participation by the person in the litigation.

9. Upon a showing, conducted in camera, that actions of the person initiating the action during discovery would interfere with the attorney general's investigation or prosecution of a criminal or civil matter, the court may stay the discovery by the person initiating the action for not more than sixty days. The court may extend the stay upon a further showing that the attorney general is pursuing the investigation or proceeding with reasonable diligence and the discovery would interfere with the ongoing investigation or proceeding.

10. As an alternative to an action authorized by this section, the attorney general may pursue a violation of sections 191.900 to 191.910 through any alternate proceeding available to this state. If the attorney general pursues an alternate proceeding, a person who initiated an action under this section shall have equivalent rights in that proceeding to the rights that the person would have had if the action had continued under this section. Findings of fact and conclusions of law that become final in an alternative proceeding shall become conclusive on the parties to an action under this section. For the purposes of this subsection, a finding or conclusion is final if it has been finally determined on appeal to the appropriate court, if the time for filing an appeal with respect to the finding or conclusion has expired, or if the finding or conclusion is not subject to judicial review.

11. If the parties to an action filed under this section prevail in the action, the court shall award the person who initiated such action necessary expenses, costs, and, based on the amount of effort involved, the court shall award such person twenty to thirty-five percent of the monetary proceeds resulting from the action or any settlement of the claim.

12. If the court finds an action under this section to be based primarily on disclosure of specific information that was not provided by the person initiating the action, such as information from a criminal, civil, or administrative hearing in a state or federal department or agency, a legislative report, hearing, audit, or investigation, or the news media, and the attorney general proceeds with the action, the court shall award the person initiating the action no more than fifteen percent of the monetary recovery in addition to reasonable attorney's fees, necessary expenses, and costs.

13. If the court finds that the person initiating an action under this section planned, initiated, or participated in the conduct upon which the action is brought, the court may reduce or eliminate, as it considers appropriate, the share of the proceeds of the action that the person would otherwise be entitled to receive. A person who is convicted of criminal conduct arising from a violation of sections 191.900 to 191.910 shall not initiate or remain a party to an action under this section and is not entitled to share in the monetary proceeds resulting from the action or any settlement under this section.

14. A person other than the attorney general shall not bring an action under this section that is based on allegations or transactions that are already the subject of a civil suit, criminal investigation or prosecution, or an administrative investigation or proceeding to which the state or the federal government is already a party. The court shall dismiss an action brought in violation of this subsection.

15. Unless the person is the original source of the information, a person, other than the attorney general, shall not initiate an action under this section based on the public disclosure of allegations or transactions in a criminal, civil, or administrative hearing in a state or federal department or agency, a legislative report, hearing, audit, or investigation, or the news media. The person is the original source if he or she had direct and independent knowledge of the information on which the allegations are based and voluntarily provided the information to the attorney general as part of the filing of an action based on that information under this section.

16. The attorney general shall not be liable for any expenses, costs, or attorney's fees that a person incurs in bringing an action under this section. Any amount awarded to a person initiating an action to enforce sections 191.900 to 191.910 is payable solely from the proceeds of the action or settlement.

17. If the attorney general initiates an action for a violation of sections 191.900 to 191.910, or assumes control of an action initiated by a person under this section, the attorney general shall be awarded its reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs.

18. The attorney general shall establish guidelines for enforcing and implementing the provisions of this section. Such guidelines shall be modeled upon the standards established by the "Guidance on the Use of the Civil False Claims Act in Civil Health Care Matters" issued by the United States Department of Justice on June 3, 1998, including any revisions to the standards. In developing such guidelines, the attorney general may solicit comments from health care providers.

19. Venue for an action brought under this section shall be in Cole County.

20. An action brought under this section shall not be brought more than five years after the date on which the violation was committed.

21. Nothing within this section shall be deemed to alter the statutes of limitations provided in section 516.105, RSMo, or section 153.537.100, RSMo."

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, our hope is in You; we hang on Your every Word. We trust You.

We know You have a plan for us: a plan to prosper us, not to harm You. Plans to give us a future filled with hope. You have set that plan in motion.

We need strength to stay on course, following Your plan well. We need wisdom to establish reasonable laws for our constituents. We need vision to establish laws that reach into and meet the needs of future generations. Only You can grant such insight, such judgment.

May we plan and consider well the work of our hand and may all our ways be established and ordered properly.

Help us to avoid the self-willed path of destruction as we travel the intense, focused course which lie ahead; turning not to the left or to the right.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with us all.

For it is in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Rachel Guinn.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed.

STATE OF TRANSPORTATION ADDRESS

Pete Rahn

Lt. Governor, Mr. Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, Distinguished State Officials, Members of the 94th General Assembly, Members of the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission and Citizens of Missouri:

Missouri has been shaped by the evolution of transportation. We have been blessed with great natural wonders and by the pioneering spirit of visionaries. Mighty rivers carried the canoes of the first Missourians. Lewis and Clark's keelboat followed close behind providing a gateway to the west and the great steamboats of the late 1800's revolutionized travel and commerce.

Missourians also witnessed the advance of railroads that drove western expansion and economic growth throughout our state. Crude cattle trails with now-famous names became roads and then super interstate highways, and flying contraptions led to bustling airports across Missouri that connected us overnight to the world.

Each improved form of transportation produced greater economic opportunity and increased our personal freedom. Today we enjoy, and frankly take for granted, the finest transportation system in the history of mankind. Our livelihoods, our security, our independence, in essence - our very way of life - depend upon the pavements, waterways, rail and runways that link our vast nation. In the very heart of this system, Missouri has great opportunity and a great responsibility.

It is because of this importance that I am proud to report to you that the state of transportation in Missouri is improving dramatically.

This improvement has been the result of greater investment in our transportation system - investment that creates jobs, personal income, economic activity and revenue for education, health care, public safety and other vital services.

The Missouri Department of Economic Development reports that our 5.7 billion-dollar, five-year statewide transportation improvement program provides an impressive economic benefit to citizens. Ultimately, for every one billion dollars we invest in transportation we generate 3.6 billion dollars in economic activity.

History has demonstrated that investing in transportation has always been of significant value. Transportation is a good investment that returns great yields and leads to a better Missouri. We are seeing the benefits of greater investment in other ways, too.

Our busiest roads are smoother. Seventy-four percent (74%) of Missouri's major highways are now in good condition and drivers are feeling the difference.

Our most traveled highways are safer. We have installed brighter, wider stripes; larger, easier-to-read signs; emergency reference markers; rumble stripes and median guard cables. As a result, 173 fewer people lost their lives in 2006.

According to USA Today, this 14 percent drop is the third largest decrease in traffic fatalities among all states and the District of Columbia. Now, that is a ranking of which we can all be proud.

Ladies and gentleman, our roads are getting smoother and safer, sooner because your Department of Transportation is getting more efficient and effective every day.

This improved effectiveness was illustrated on December 8, 2006. I was pleased to join Governor Blunt in placing a big yellow banner reading "Completed One Year Ahead Of Schedule" on a Smooth Roads Initiative highway sign.

When we set out to use Amendment 3 funds to make Missouri's busiest 2,200 miles of roads smoother and safer in just three years, we thought that would be an extraordinary accomplishment.

In his 2006 State of the State Address, however, the Governor challenged us to deliver the program one year early. And - as soon as I regained consciousness - we started working to meet the Governor's challenge.

Last year we did just that and the words on the banner changed to reflect completion of the vital initiative not just as promised, but one year and 23 days early.

We cannot, however, at this time place a "Completed As Promised" banner on our mission to make Missouri's highways and bridges better. Together, we have made great advancements toward a world-class transportation system, but we have a long way to go. There are, however, positive indicators of our success. We are hearing from customers commenting about the noticeable improvements in Missouri's roads.

In December, we had further proof of drivers feeling the difference in the condition of our highways. A nationwide survey of truckers by Overdrive Magazine ranked Interstates 44 and 70 in Missouri as the second and third most improved highways in the country.

That is a dramatic change from just the previous year when that same magazine ranked I-44 in Missouri as the second-worst highway in the nation and our highways overall were also ranked second-worst.

This is progress, but not victory. During the past year we have announced steps to make further improvements to our state's roads. Just last month, the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission approved the Better Roads, Brighter Future Program.

If you thought the Smooth Roads Initiative was impressive, just wait until you experience this. Better Roads, Brighter Future is the Smooth Roads Initiative on steroids.

This groundbreaking program will result in 5,600 miles of our busiest highways being smoother and safer by 2012. I would add that 95 percent of Missourians live within 10 miles of these routes.

These better roads will include smooth pavement; brighter, wider striping; larger signs; rumble stripes; and, in most cases, a minimum four-foot paved shoulder. This means that the success of the Smooth Roads Initiative and all of its improvements will now be applied to our entire major highway system.

At the same time, the program will mean a brighter future. Smooth roads increase fuel efficiency by 2.4 percent. That savings will put an additional 100 million dollars back into the pockets of Missouri's drivers.

Additionally, it will create employment opportunities up and down the highways we improve.

But our efforts don't end there. I thank the General Assembly for the authority to use the innovative design-build method to deliver improvements to Missouri's transportation system.

Our first design-build project is Highway 40 in St. Louis or I-64, as we now call it. I-64 will be the largest single construction project in Missouri's highway history and the implemented innovations are unrivaled here or anywhere else in the country.

We have taken a project that would normally create a virtual parking lot on I-64 for seven years and accelerated construction to just three years with the public feeling significant affects for only two. And the resulting benefits will be worth the temporary inconvenience.

We will be rebuilding and upgrading all pavements and bridges and building 12 new interchanges on 10 miles of I-64 including a new high speed interchange at I-170. Our innovative approach has already saved money and time while creating a model workforce development partnership for the region.

On the other side of the state, in Kansas City, we are proceeding with our second design-build project to replace the existing Paseo Bridge. We are calling this project KcICON because it will provide better interstate connections and will be a landmark bridge of which all Missourians can be proud.

KcICON will mean less traffic congestion and greater mobility in the Kansas City area. It also breaks new ground for community involvement. A twelve-member Community Advisory Group has been formed whose members were selected by local officials to provide input and a public perspective regarding the architectural design of the bridge.

The third and final design-build project is our Safe and Sound Bridge Improvement Plan. Safe and Sound will mean more than 800 better bridges by 2012.

With over 10,000 bridges, Missouri has the seventh most of any state in the union. We face a crisis situation as more than 1,000 are structurally in serious condition. Many are one step away from being closed.

Our bold approach to improve our bridges in record time is not only innovative, but also unprecedented. Other states, transportation organizations and national publications are watching this program with great interest.

A team of contractors and designers will be selected to perform all of the work. This approach works well with large, complicated projects and will give us the best possible opportunity to save money and complete the program within its aggressive time schedule.

Each of the bridges will be replaced or repaired and the successful bidder will be required to keep them in good condition for at least 25 years. If their solutions don't perform, we don't pay. That is the ultimate protection of Missouri taxpayers for an extreme make over of Missouri's bridges.

With all of this innovation accelerating our program, and thanks to voter approval of Amendment 3 in 2004, it is little wonder that we have experienced the largest highway construction program in Missouri history.

Missourians benefitted from 1.4 billion dollars invested in road improvements in 2006 meaning that our highways are getting safer and smoother, our state is getting more prosperous and our quality of life is improving.

The people of Missouri trusted us with additional funding through Amendment 3. MoDOT said that we would put that money to quick use improving your state highways. We said what we would do and then we did it. We are on schedule for successful completion of Amendment 3 improvements and to declaring "Completed As Promised."

Our accomplishments, however, have not been limited to highways. We have also worked to improve other modes of transportation in our state.

In June of last year, we began the assessment of Amtrak rail service between St. Louis and Springfield. Additionally, I was proud to certify for operation the MetroLink extension in August. Both of these developments mean the potential for more and better transportation options for Missourians.

We have also made strides toward improving local airports, which are so essential to economic development and business retention. We are currently building an airport with a 5,000-foot runway in Branson West - the 30th such airport in Missouri. This type of airport is essential for accommodating larger business aircraft.

This will be the 7th new airport constructed by MoDOT since 1990. In fact, Missouri has built more new general aviation airports than any state in the nation during this 16-year period.

Missouri's waterways have also seen investment resulting in economic development. A 500,000 dollar grant to the Southeast Missouri Regional Port Authority in Scott City resulted in attraction of a corn milling business.

This economic development resulted in 40 million dollars of investment in the local community and creation of nearly 300 jobs in the area. The investment also helped bring about a nearby ethanol plant now under construction, which means another quarter of a billion dollars in private investment and 450 more jobs.

Unfortunately, with current funding, we cannot say, "Completed As Promised" to becoming a total transportation department. We are called a Department of Transportation, but we are funded like a highway department. We must find ways to increase investment in other modes of transportation.

When we speak of quality of life, we must discuss safety. We have worked hard to make our highways as safe as possible. And our efforts have led to a decrease in fatalities on our roadways.

Accelerating safety improvements under the Smooth Roads Initiative will save an estimated 14 lives and prevent 589 injuries this year. Earlier completion of these safety improvements will also result in a cost savings of more than $74 million to the traveling public.

Another great life-saving measure has been the installation of median guard cables. Wherever the center median on our interstates is less than 60 feet wide, we have placed these cables. All of I-70 now has them across Missouri. Much of I-44 and I-29 also have these safety features and they will soon be complete on these corridors as well.

You need only to drive a few miles on these routes to witness the effectiveness of guard cables. As you drive, you will see how frequently the cables are being hit. It costs us nearly 4 million dollars per year to repair these strikes and maintain the guard cables overall.

This is money wisely invested, since each instance represents potential lives saved because the cables have proven 95 percent effective at stopping crossover crashes.

Despite the effectiveness of median guard cables and the other measures we have taken to make our highways safer, we all know that it is driver behavior that results in most highway fatalities and serious injuries. The fact is that the most effective "guard cable" is the one you strap across your body when you enter your vehicle.

Unfortunately, not enough people are buckling up. We have seen a drop in safety belt use in Missouri. Usage rates went from 77 percent in 2005 to only 75 percent in 2006. This is the first time since 1998 that safety belt use has not increased.

Even more alarming, safety belt use is lowest among our youngest drivers. Teenagers buckle up only 58 percent of the time, and they make up a disproportionate amount of the people killed and injured in crashes each year.

The facts are clear and convincing. About 68 percent of the people who die in Missouri traffic crashes are not wearing a safety belt. A driver involved in a traffic crash in 2005 had a one in 32 chance of being killed if not wearing a safety belt. In those cases where drivers wore safety belts, their chance of being killed was only one in 1,017.

It is apparent that safety belts save lives, but only if they are worn. Despite our best efforts. Despite unprecedented public education activities. Safety belt use is on the decline in Missouri.

We all know what action would increase safety belt use based on examples from numerous other states. That action is the passage of a primary safety belt law.

I commend the 39 members of the Missouri House of Representatives who have signed on to co-sponsor House Bill 90 - Missouri's primary safety belt act.

As most of you know, that bill number was not an accident. We could save 90 lives per year by enacting a primary safety belt law. Safety belt usage is required by law now. This bill would simply allow for effective enforcement.

Of the more than 500 traffic offenses in Missouri, our safety belt law is the only one that deliberately discourages police enforcement. The effect of the current law is to declare that a cracked taillight or a dirty license plate is a higher priority for law enforcement than life saving safety belts.

It is time to act. We spend billions of dollars making our highways safer. Without spending a dime, we could save 90 lives each year. It is imperative that we make 2007 the year we say, "Completed As Promised" about a primary safety belt law and saving those 90 lives.

That promise, however, will not be fulfilled just once. Each of you who help enact this bill will know that with every year that passes, you have saved another 90 lives.

Unfortunately, we are also losing too many MoDOT workers in the line of duty. In the past five years we have lost nine employees. Last year the General Assembly took an important, life-saving step by making work zone laws stricter and the penalties more severe. I thank you, sincerely.

In 2006, four MoDOT employees lost their lives. Bob Eftink, Robert Mayer, Ken Hoierman and William Crain were killed in the line of duty working to make our transportation system better.

MoDOT team members made many sacrifices over the past year working long hours, including nights and weekends, serving the people of our state. These four gentlemen made the ultimate sacrifice in service to the public.

Relatives of Bob Eftink, Robert Mayer, Ken Hoierman and William Crain are here today. They represent the loved ones they lost and the families of all MoDOT workers who have made great sacrifices for the people of Missouri. I ask them to stand so we can express our appreciation.

We have accomplished great things together over the past year. It is our duty, however, to look toward the future, not to remain in the past. That future will require us to think differently than we have before.

Transportation is too important to be locked into conventional solutions. To address the needs of our future, we will have to look beyond what is currently accepted to what is most effective.

The needs we must address are substantial. By 2012 - just five years from today - there will be nearly 800,000 more large trucks annually on I-44 and greater than 700,000 more large trucks on I-70. This vital commercial traffic will only increase beyond 2012 and will be even higher in urban areas.

We cannot ignore this growing traffic and I am convinced that we must include dedicated truck lanes as part of our solution to separate semis from family sedans on our two most critical roadways - I-70 and I-44.

This will make driving safer and more comfortable for motorists and truckers. This can be accomplished within our current cost estimates of 7.2 billion dollars for improvement to both interstates.

The growing traffic congestion on our interstates will be even worse in urban areas. By the year 2020, drivers on the Poplar Street Bridge in St. Louis will experience three-hour backups during morning peak commute times. We must do everything we can to prevent that from happening.

A New Mississippi River Bridge is critical to the long-term economic health of the St. Louis region. Unfortunately, given current funding, we have no means to pay for this project. It is imperative that we find an innovative solution to paying for this bridge.

This bridge and our interstates are just a portion of the 32,000-mile highway system we maintain - the seventh largest in the country. We have nearly 27,000 miles of lettered routes that are so vital to our overall system. Currently, and for the foreseeable future, we can only try to maintain them in their current condition without any significant improvements.

These routes are particularly important for the movement of crops and agricultural products, which are imperative to the economic health of our state. Without additional funding, we can do little to accommodate the changing nature of farm equipment including the transition from the old two-ton flatbed truck to the tractor-trailer rigs that are so common on today's farms.

In order to rebuild our largest, busiest interstates; to improve our lettered routes; to impact growing urban and suburban congestion; to truly move transportation forward in Missouri, we must find a way to direct more dollars to our roads and other modes of transportation.

We are in the midst of a bubble for funding of highway construction. From the top of this peak we can observe a very low valley. Our current construction program of 1.3 billion dollars, the largest in Missouri history, drops off a cliff in 2010 and plummets to 569 million dollars, which is slightly less than where we were prior to Amendment 3.

I am extremely pleased to see a dialogue about the need for greater transportation funding beginning in the legislature this year. I know that legislation has been introduced that will allow for thoughtful debate about funding highways, bridges and other modes. That is a crucial first step.

As your Department of Transportation, it is our duty to ensure that taxpayers are confident in our ability to utilize additional funding effectively and efficiently. They also expect us to use the money to improve their roads. We have demonstrated our ability to do just that.

When we started the Smooth Roads Initiative, only 47 percent of Missouri's major highways were in good condition. Today, 74 percent of those highways are in good condition.

We have shown that given additional resources we will use them wisely and for their intended purposes. As we were investing record amounts in highway construction, we were only spending two percent of our budget on administration and with no additional full-time staff.

We have applied practical design to our roads and bridges by cutting out the frills and simply meeting needs. We have applied that same concept to administrative expenses and are directing the maximum amount possible to making our transportation system better.

And, we are being recognized for our efforts.

Roads and Bridges magazine said MoDOT, "has turned over a new leaf, and infrastructure repair work started to flourish over the last year."

Midwest Contractor magazine called MoDOT the leader in innovation among the states in its region.

The Kansas City Star said that MoDOT deserves credit for considering "new approaches to financing infrastructure" in regard to our Safe and Sound Bridge Plan.

And, the Jefferson City News Tribune editorialized that MoDOT has gained momentum and that, "The best way to restore credibility is with action, not talk, and the Department has done precisely that."

I am grateful for their comments.

Your Department of Transportation said we would work hard to build credibility with the people of Missouri.

We said we would make your roads smoother

We said we would make your roads safer.

We said we would get the best value out of every taxpayer dollar we have been given.

But we are not prepared to say, "Completed As Promised" to all of those goals because we will always work to do things even better, faster and cheaper.

Our future, however, does show great promise and, together, we can make sure that "Completed As Promised" becomes the motto for transportation in Missouri.

Thank you and may God bless your travels.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

(The increased security measures being discussed for this state Capitol building, suggest prayer for unity in the human family)

Almighty God, Creator of all and Father of the human family, we adore and honor You today.

We acknowledge that the human family is unable to live together as a family. We repent of any guilt we bear personally in this matter.

Keep safe all who enter the doors of this state Capitol. They often enter side by side with others whom they do not know. We pray for the day when all enter together with respect for and a desire to work with one another; we pray for the day when no one will enter with hatred for or fear of others.

Change the hearts of those who would hate or seek the harm of others. Give them hearts of respect for the dignity of every person; give them hearts that seek true justice.

If we have attitudes of arrogance or superiority or any other negative attitude that becomes an excuse for or tempts others to hatred, heal us, Lord God; give us true love of neighbor.

Be with us throughout our work of today. Refresh us through the coming weekend.

We revere You, our God and Father, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twentieth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SECOND DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

None can compare to You, O Lord! Your exploits are incomparable! For You are great and do amazing things. You alone are God.

You desire truth in the inner being. Make us, therefore, to know wisdom in our heart and grant us perceptive insight. Teach us the walk of integrity.

Heavenly Father, we endeavor to keep our eyes open for You, watching for Your works; staying alert for signs of Your presence. We take strategic moments to pause and breathe in Your goodness.

We thank You for the abundance of Your mercy showered upon us when we have missed the mark. May Your grace, Your unmerited favor, be sufficient for all that we do for the people of this state.

For it is in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-first day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

(From a prayer attributed to Abraham Lincoln. Let it be our prayer this morning.)

God bless our native land;
Firm may she ever stand
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
O Ruler of wind and wave,
Thou Who art strong to save,
Be Thou her might!

For her our prayer shall be,
Our father's God, to Thee,
On Whom we wait;
Be her walls, holiness -
Her rulers righteousness,
In all her homes be peace,
God save the State!

Not for this land alone,
But be God's mercies shown
From shore to shore
And may the nations see
That men should brothers be,
And form one family
The wide-world o'er.
(Amen.)

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Samantha Osterloh, Paige Steiner, Jessica Talley and Gina Battger.

The Journal of the twenty-second day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Pastor Ron Webb, Mt. Calvary Powerhouse Church, Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage; we humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our nation with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners.

Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth.

In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble suffer not our trust in Thee to fail; all which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Adapted Philadelphia Presbyterian, 1905)

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Natalie Calvo, Trevor Crainshaw, Matt Dear, Matt Mistler and Isaiah Alan Harris.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Cooper (120) in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray first, by listening to this word of God.

"Because he dispensed justice to the weak and the poor, it went well with him." (Jeremiah 22:16)

Almighty God, we thank You for guiding us to dispense justice and to do good for the working disabled. The "working disabled"! Through the very title You inspire us to hold them in great respect. You call us to a comparable respect for those who are disabled and unable to work. At the right time and in the right ways, guide us to work together for them according to their genuine need of help from this body.

Strengthen us to seek justice and truth in all our work today. Give us the ability and the self-discipline to listen to one another carefully that we may discern what is right and true more clearly.

Be with us as we return to our homes for the coming weekend. Guide us to hold in our hearts always great concern for those who have asked us to represent them.

We pray through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sara DePaoli.

The Journal of the twenty-fourth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Lord God, You are gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and abounding in mercy. You are good to all, and Your tender mercies are over all the work of Your hand.

How wonderful to be near You, O God, to find protection with You, Sovereign LORD and to proclaim all that You have done!

Teach us to use wisely all the time we have in this session. Teach us to enjoy life in spite of the difficult moments. Teach us to have compassion as You have shown us compassion; considering the plight of others as we make decisions that affect us all.

Your advice has been our guide as we seek to do what is right and pleasing in Your sight.

Now may You, the God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace in believing, so that we would abound in hope by the power of Your Spirit.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Janae Robinson, Alan Dockery, Tyler Mutch, Beverly Stevens, Diane Mott, Graham Gardner, Paige Russell and Lauren Sellers.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert Kurwicki, St. Joseph Cathedral, Jefferson City.

Almighty and loving God, we ask for Your presence in this Chamber today, as we discern those matters which will bring light, peace and joy to the people that we serve. Let us be united in the common good and not distracted by those things which divide us.

May our thoughts and words be reflections of the honor of this institution now and in the future. Let us remember that history will judge us not just by the outcome of our debates, but also by their manner. We ask this and for all things in Your holy name. Amen.

COMMUNICATIONS

February 19, 2007

Mr. Adam Crumbliss
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol Building
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Clerk:

Pursuant to Chapter 105.461, RSMo, this letter is an official report that I have a contractual relationship with Lindenwood University. The Missouri Ethics Commission has by letter verified that this relationship does not constitute a conflict of interest with my duties in the General Assembly.

Please publish this report in the Journal of the House pursuant to RSMo, Chapter 105.461.

Sincerely,

/s/ Rep. Carl Bearden

February 13, 2007

Mr. D. Adam Crumbliss
Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
Capitol Building
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Crumbliss:

Please allow this letter to serve as a request to be removed as co-sponsor of House Bill No. 495.

As a new legislator, I have made every attempt to be careful as to the legislation that I would sign on as co-sponsor. I have not freely decided to sign on any bill that has come my way, without having a good understanding as to what the bill entailed. I have shown great reservation, and chosen not to sign on to bills that may in fact, in the end, prove no harm to the people of my district. As a result, I have a good working knowledge of the type of bills that I have co-sponsored.

Thus, I am gravely concerned that I appear as co-sponsor, on legislation that I would never have knowingly signed on. House Bill No. 495, establishes a Missouri State Park Board to oversee a Historical Marker Program, a program that would have the power to erect a "statue, seal, flag or symbol" or any historical marker which would celebrate or commemorate the role of the Confederate Army here in Missouri.

As an African American legislator, I find this portion of the legislation offensive in that, although historical, the loss of the Confederates was pre-emptive for what allows me to assume my office as an elected legislator, thus giving me the capacity to write this letter today. My strong belief in equality and lack the suppression of any certain people, would have precluded me from ever knowingly signing on to, legislation of this nature. With this being said, I strongly request that my name be removed from this bill.

Thank you for your consideration of my request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Shalonn K. Curls
41st District

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Blessed be the Lord, our God, who has given us rest according to all that You promised. There has not failed one word of all Your good promise, which You promised to us.

Thank You for positioning us as agents of change for the betterment of this state. Thank You for Your wisdom, favor and protection that is showered upon us, but also for Your hand of protection on our family and staff. May we serve well and continue in health: spirit, soul and body.

May Your unlimited mercy grant us deliverance from all troubles seen and unseen.

Now may these words of ours, with which we have made prayer before You, Lord, be near to You day and night, that You may maintain the cause of Your servants and the cause of the people of this state as each day may require.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Lucas Sean Wilson, Sumner Sparkman and Blake Sparkman.

Prayer by Archbishop Malkhaz Songulashvili, Evangelical Baptist Union of Georgia.

O God Almighty, lead us all from death to life, from falsehood to truth. Lead us all from despair to hope, from fear to trust. Lead us all from hate to love, from war to peace.

We pray to You, O Lord, that Your holy angels may lead us in the paths of peace, justice and goodwill; that there may be pardon and forgiveness for our sins against nature and our fellow human beings.

We pray that there may be peace everywhere around the globe, and that all of Your children enjoy the beauty and wisdom of Your creation. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTIETH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Yours, O Lord, is the greatness, the power and the glory, the victory and the majesty; all things are from You.

You have helped us when we were without power, counseled us when we sought wisdom, and declared sound advice to us when we sought direction.

Father, reveal to us those areas where we are focused on ourselves in a manner that hinders our effectiveness and efficiency as willing servants. Empower us by Your Spirit to see how we can better serve our constituents and this state. Lead us in plain paths of growth in grace.

Now may You, the God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace in believing, so that we would abound in hope by the power of Your Spirit.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

"208.690. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Missouri Long-term Care Partnership Program Act".

2. As used in sections 208.690 to 208.699, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Asset disregard," the disregard of any assets or resources in an amount equal to the insurance benefit payments that are used on behalf of the individual;

(2) "Missouri Qualified Long-term Care Partnership approved policy", a long-term care insurance policy certified by the director of the department of insurance, financial institutions and professional registration as meeting the requirements of:

(a) The National Association of Insurance Commissioners' Long-term Care Insurance Model Act and Regulation as specified in 42 U.S.C. 1917(b); and

(b) The provisions of Section 6021 of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005.

(3) "State Medicaid program", the medical assistance program established in this state under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act;

(4) "State plan amendment", a state Medicaid plan amendment to the federal Department of Health and Human Services that, in determining eligibility for state Medicaid benefits, provides for the disregard of any assets or resources in an amount equal to the insurance benefit payments that are made to or on behalf of an individual who is a beneficiary under a qualified long-term care insurance partnership policy.

208.692. 1. In accordance with Section 6021 of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, there is established the Missouri Long-term Care Partnership Program, which shall be administered by the department of social services in conjunction with the department of insurance, financial institutions and professional registration. The program shall:

(1) Provide incentives for individuals to insure against the costs of providing for their long-term care needs;

(2) Provide a mechanism for individuals to qualify for coverage of the cost of their long-term care needs under the state Medicaid program without first being required to substantially exhaust their resources; and

(3) Alleviate the financial burden on the state's Medicaid program by encouraging the pursuit of private initiatives.

2. Upon the exhaustion of benefits or upon the diminishment of assets below the anticipated remaining benefits under a Missouri qualified long-term care partnership approved policy, certain assets of an individual, as provided in subsection 3 of this section, shall be disregarded when determining any of the following:

- (1) Medicaid eligibility;
- (2) The amount of any Medicaid payment; and
- (3) Any subsequent recovery by the state of a payment for medical services.

3. The department of social services shall:

(1) Within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of sections 208.690 to 208.699, make application to the federal Department of Health and Human Services for a state plan amendment to establish a program that, in determining eligibility for state Medicaid benefits, provides for the disregard of any assets or resources in an amount equal to the insurance benefit payments that are made to or on behalf of an individual who is a beneficiary under a qualified long-term care insurance partnership policy; and

(2) Provide information and technical assistance to the department of insurance, financial institutions and professional registration to assure that any individual who sells a qualified long-term care insurance partnership policy receives training and demonstrates evidence of an understanding of such policies and how they relate to other public and private coverage of long-term care.

4. The department of social services shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of sections 208.690 to 208.699. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions 43 of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2007, shall be invalid and void.

208.694. 1. An individual who is beneficiary of a Missouri qualified long-term care partnership approved policy is eligible for assistance under the state Medicaid program using asset disregard under sections 208.690 to 208.699.

2. If the Missouri long-term care partnership program is discontinued, an individual who purchased a qualified long-term care partnership approved policy prior to the date the program was discontinued shall be eligible to receive asset disregard, as provided by Title VI, Section 6021 of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005.

3. The department of social services may enter into reciprocal agreements with other states that have asset disregard provisions established under Title VI, Section 6021 of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 in order to extend the asset disregard to Missouri residents who purchase long-term care policies in another state.

208.696. 1. The director of the department of insurance, financial institutions and professional registration shall:

(1) Develop requirements to ensure that any individual who sells a qualified long-term care insurance partnership policy receives training and demonstrates evidence of an understanding of such policies and how they relate to other public and private coverage of long-term care;

(2) Impose no requirements affecting the terms or benefits of qualified long-term care partnership policies unless the director imposes such a requirement on all long-term care policies sold in this state, without regard to whether the policy is covered under the partnership or is offered in connection with such partnership; and

(3) Develop a summary notice in clear, easily understood language for the consumer purchasing qualified long-term care insurance partnership policies on the current law pertaining to asset disregard and asset tests.

2. The director of the department of insurance, financial institutions and professional registration shall promulgate rules to carry out the provisions of this section, and on the process for certifying the qualified long-term care partnership policies. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2007, shall be invalid and void.

208.698. The issuers of qualified long-term care partnership policies in this state shall provide regular reports to both the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services in accordance with federal law and regulations and to the department of social services and the department of insurance, financial institutions and professional registration as provided in Section 6021 of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005.

208.699. Under section 23.253, RSMo, of the Missouri sunset act:

(1) The provisions of the new program authorized under sections 208.690 to 208.698 shall sunset automatically six years after the effective date of said sections unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly; and

(2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under sections 208.690 to 208.698 shall sunset automatically twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of sections 208.690 to 208.698; and

(3) Sections 208.690 to 208.698 shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under said sections is sunset."; and

Blessed are You,
Who have brought us together again this day
To work in harmony and peace.

As God of all creation,
You have provided the goods of the earth

WHEREAS, Truman Medical Centers is Western Missouri's safety net hospital system. The Truman Medical Center System is comprised of Truman Medical Center Hospital Hill, Truman Medical Center Lakewood, and Truman Medical Center Behavioral Health; and

WHEREAS, with three out of four of Truman Medical Center patients being uninsured or Medicaid-eligible, Truman Medical Center is the health care home for many of the underinsured in the Kansas City area; and

WHEREAS, both Truman Medical Center hospitals serve as primary teaching institutions for the residents and undergraduate medical students of the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Medicine; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby urge the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to withdraw the portion of the proposed rules that would change the status of Truman Medical Center as a government owned or operated hospital; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Cooper (120) in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

O God, You are wise and powerful! We praise You for ever and ever. You control the times and the seasons; You make and unmake authorities.

It is You who give us wisdom and understanding; You who reveal things that are deep and secret. You know what is hidden in darkness and You Yourself are surrounded by light.

We praise and honor You, God of all creation. You have given us wisdom and strength; You have answered our prayer and shown us how to execute Your plan on behalf of this state.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with us all as we navigate the multiple responsibilities we encounter this week.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 24

WHEREAS, the federal No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act requires states to assess all students in their state's assessment program; and

WHEREAS, the Act provides for a limited number of students with disabilities to be assessed with an alternate assessment, but only 1% of a school district's tested population may be counted as proficient or above using the alternate assessment; and

WHEREAS, this limitation results in some special needs students being included in the regular state assessment system when, in fact, their cognitive disabilities are such that they should not be assessed with their age or grade-level peers; and

WHEREAS, a more appropriate assessment for them might be a test that was developed for use in some grade-level below the grade in which they are classified, but the United States Department of Education regulations governing the implementation of the NCLB Act prohibit this "out of grade-level" testing; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Education has recently allowed for the inclusion of an additional 2% of students with disabilities to be assessed with a modified grade-level assessment, but this additional flexibility still prohibits "out of grade-level" testing; and

WHEREAS, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (IDEA), which predates the NCLB Act, contains requirements for assessment that must be included in the student's individualized educational program (IEP), which may not meet the requirements of the NCLB Act for assessment and thus may place the IEP team at odds with the overall NCLB assessment process and may create confusion for parents; and

WHEREAS, certain accommodations written into an IEP, such as reading out loud or paraphrasing, are currently not acceptable for certain assessments under NCLB procedures, thus making the student's performance on the assessment not count for NCLB purposes and denying the student an accommodation that the IEP team has documented as necessary to the child's best chances for a proficient performance; and

WHEREAS, Secretary Margaret Spellings has shown an admirable flexibility in permitting experimentation with alternative approaches to the NCLB Act while keeping the focus on accountability:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, that the interests of the special needs students of the state would best be served by reviewing the assessment provisions of IDEA and the NCLB Act together to eliminate contradictory objectives, so that accommodations that are appropriate to a student with an IEP do not invalidate the student's assessment results for the purposes of No Child Left Behind assessments; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Margaret Spellings, Secretary of the United States Department of Education and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on Student Achievement, to which was referred HB 771, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on Student Achievement, to which was referred HB 827, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Special Committee on Tourism, Chairman Marsh reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on Tourism, to which was referred HB 910, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass by Consent, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Transportation, Chairman St. Onge reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Transportation, to which was referred HB 744, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass - Federal Mandate, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Ways and Means, Chairman Sutherland reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Ways and Means, to which was referred HB 364, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Committee on Rules, Chairman Cooper (120) reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HR 433, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 433

WHEREAS, American eighth grade students rank 15th in an international study of math achievement. By the time they graduate high school, they score near the bottom of all industrialized nations; and

WHEREAS, while American students are falling behind, students in countries like China and India are excelling. In just five years, it is estimated that 90% of the world's engineers and scientists will come from Asia; and

WHEREAS, over the past 30 years the math and science scores of American students have remained flat while the scores of students in other industrialized countries have soared; and

WHEREAS, many jobs are leaving the United States, not simply because the workforce is cheaper, but also because countries like China and India have employees better educated in math and science; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Labor predicts that over the ten-year period ending in 2008, jobs requiring science, engineering, and technical training will increase by 51%, a rate four times faster than overall job growth. Yet only 5% of the college students in the United States today major in engineering, a trend that has gone down over the past 15 years. By the end of 2008, it is predicted that some 6 million jobs requiring math and science skills will go unfilled simply because American youth won't be qualified to hold them; and

WHEREAS, in 2006, Governor Matt Blunt hosted a math and science summit that brought together leaders from education, business, government, and communities across the state. The purpose was to raise awareness and to recognize the challenges that Missouri will face in the coming years if more students are not fully prepared for careers that require knowledge and skills in mathematics, engineering, technology, and science (the METS fields); and

WHEREAS, at the 2006 summit, Governor Blunt stated his commitment to enhancing Missouri's success in global competition by expanding the METS skills of the State's current and future workforce, increasing public awareness of this critical issue, supporting initiatives that will move Missouri forward, and increasing Missouri's involvement in developing new knowledge and translating it into world-class products and services; and

WHEREAS, Governor Blunt declared October 3, 2006, "Science Day" in Missouri along with a number of mayors throughout the State. Science Day is important because American innovation depends upon a strong foundation in the sciences. Science day aims to bring attention to this problem and encourage action among parents, teachers, and community members:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, hereby recognize October 3, 2007, as "Science Day" in Missouri and recommend that it be observed by the citizens of the State of Missouri with appropriate activities in the public schools and otherwise to promote public awareness of the importance of a strong foundation in the sciences.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HCR 30, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 30

WHEREAS, there are 45 global or U.S. headquarters and over 120 companies involved in the animal health industry including four of the 10 largest global animal health companies and one of the five largest animal nutrition companies located in Missouri and Kansas; and

WHEREAS, leading veterinary colleges and animal research centers are located in Missouri and Kansas including the University of Missouri College of Veterinary Medicine, the University of Missouri's $60 million Life Sciences Center and Swine Research Center, the Kansas State University College of Veterinary Medicine, and the Kansas State University's $54 million Biosecurity Research Institute; and

WHEREAS, Missouri is 7th and Kansas is 2nd in cattle and calf inventory in the United States; and

WHEREAS, there are nationally-recognized publishers within the animal health industry located in Missouri and Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Missouri and Kansas have historical roots in the livestock industry and are home to many prominent national and international associations within the animal health industry; and

WHEREAS, retaining and growing existing animal health companies, attracting new animal health companies, increasing animal health research capacity, and developing commercialization infrastructure will create quality jobs and wealth for the states of Missouri and Kansas:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-Fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby recognize the region from Manhattan, Kansas, to Columbia, Missouri, including the metropolitan Kansas City area and St. Joseph, Missouri, as the "KC Animal Health Corridor"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly recognizes the KC Animal Health Corridor as the national center of the animal health industry based on the unmatched concentration of animal health and nutrition businesses, and educational, and research assets; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly resolves to establish a favorable business environment and support animal health research to foster the continued growth of the animal health industry for the benefit of the economy, universities, businesses, and young people hoping to pursue an animal health career in the KC Animal Health Corridor; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the chief clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Governors of Missouri and Kansas.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 20

Relating to a prohibition on the implementation of the federal REAL ID act.

WHEREAS, in May 2005, the United States Congress enacted the REAL ID Act of 2005 as part of the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act for Defense, the Global War on Terror, and Tsunami Relief Act, PL 109-13, which was signed by President Bush on May 11, 2005, and which becomes effective May 11, 2008; and

WHEREAS, some of the requirements of the REAL ID Act are that states shall:

(1) Issue a driver's license or state identification card in a uniform format, containing uniform information, as prescribed by the federal Department of Homeland Security;

(2) Verify the issuance, validity, and completeness of all primary documents used to issue a driver's license, such as those showing that the bearer is a United States citizen or a lawful alien, a lawful refugee, or a person holding a visa;

(3) Provide for secure storage of all primary documents that are used to issue a federally approved driver's license or state identification card;

(4) Provide fraudulent document recognition training to all persons engaged in issuing driver's licenses or state identification cards; and

(5) Issue a driver's license or state identification card in a prescribed format if it is a license or card that does not meet the criteria provided for a federally approved license or identification card; and

WHEREAS, use of the federal minimum standards for state driver's licenses and state-issued identification cards will be necessary for any type of federally regulated activity for which an identification card must be displayed, including flying in a commercial airplane, making transactions with a federally licensed bank, entering a federal building, or making application for federally supported public assistance benefits, including Social Security; and

WHEREAS, some of the intended privacy requirements of the REAL ID Act, such as the use of common machine-readable technology and state maintenance of a database that can be shared with the United States government and agencies of other states, may actually make it more likely that a federally required driver's license or state identification card or the information about the bearer on which the license or card is based will be stolen, sold, or otherwise used for purposes that were never intended or that are criminally related than if the REAL ID Act had not been enacted; and

WHEREAS, these potential breaches in privacy that could result directly from compliance with the REAL ID Act may violate the right to privacy secured in the Missouri Constitution for thousands of residents of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators, the National Governors' Association, and the National Conference of State Legislatures have estimated in a September 2006 impact analysis statement that the cost to the states to implement the REAL ID Act will be more than $11 billion over 5 years, and the Division of Motor Vehicle and Drivers Licensing of the Missouri Department of Revenue has estimated that the implementation of the REAL ID Act will cost Missouri $2.66 million to fully implement the Act, none of such costs being paid for by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, for all of these reasons, the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators, the National Governors' Association, and the National Conference of State Legislatures in a letter dated March 17, 2005, to the majority and minority leaders of the United States Senate opposed the adoption of the REAL ID Act, but the opposition of those groups and the groups' request that Congress rely on driver's license security provisions already passed by Congress in the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004 was largely ignored by Congress; and

WHEREAS, the regulations that are to be adopted by the federal Department of Homeland Security to implement the requirements of the REAL ID Act have yet to be adopted and, in reality, will probably not become effective until the Spring of 2007, effectively giving the states only one year in which to become familiar with the requirements of the REAL ID Act, the implementation of the regulations, and compliance with such regulations; and

WHEREAS, the mandate to the states through federal legislation that provides no funding for its requirements to issue what is, in effect, a national identification card appears to be an attempt to "commandeer" the political machinery of the states and to require the states to be agents of the federal government, in violation of the principles of federalism contained in the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court in New York v. United States, 488 U.S. 1041 (1992), United States v. Lopez, 514 U.S. 549 (1995), and Printz v. United States, 521 U.S. 898 (1997):

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby refuse to implement the REAL ID Act and thereby protest the treatment by Congress and the President of the United States of the states as agents of the federal government and, by such protest, lead other state legislatures and governors to reject the treatment by the federal government of the 50 states by the enactment of the REAL ID Act; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly finds that the enactment into law by the United States Congress of the REAL ID Act of 2005, as part of PL 109-13, is inimical to the security and well-being of the people of Missouri, will cause unneeded expense and inconvenience to those people, and was adopted by the United States Congress in violation of the principles of federalism contained in the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly prohibits the State of Missouri from participating in the implementation of the REAL ID Act of 2005. The Missouri Department of Revenue, including the Division of Motor Vehicle and Drivers Licensing, is directed not to implement the provisions of the REAL ID Act of 2005 and to report to the Governor any attempt by agencies or agents of the federal Department of Homeland Security to secure the implementation of the REAL ID Act of 2005 through the operations of such Division and Department; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution be sent to the Governor for his approval or rejection pursuant to the Missouri Constitution.

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on General Laws, to which was referred HJR 19, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on General Laws, to which was referred HB 180, HB 396 and HB 615, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 5, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Stevenson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; For You created all things, and by Your will they exist and were created.

You have called us as laborers together with You. We need Your partnership. We know that without You, we are so limited in what we are able to do. You see what we can't see; You know what we don't know; You have wisdom and insight that we don't have. We simply must have Your help if we are going to succeed in what You have commissioned us to do.

So we continue: working to improve the quality of life for all Missourians. We continue: confident that You are directing our steps as we listen intently to You, advisors, and constituents.

Now may You, the God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace in believing, so that we would abound in hope by the power of Your Spirit.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: William Branch Blunt.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Cooper (120) in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, the people of every age and description whom we see coming and going here each day, as we go about our work, inspire us to praise You in the words of Psalm 8:

What is man that You should be mindful of him or the son of man that You should care for him?

You have made him little less than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honor.
(Psalm 8:4-5)

Through the arts Your people reflect Your beauty, O God. Through concern for physical safety they preserve the wholeness and dignity of the human person. Through their pro-life efforts they support the right to existence of every human being.

O Lord, help us to do well our work for all the people we represent, our work on these themes and upon all of our agenda. We pray to You, our God forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mikayla Todd, Marissa Todd, Brantley Scott, Molly Tedrow, Samantha Cockrell, Erica Graham, Lainy Harrison, Kelly Barker, Olivia Langley and Eliot Hercules.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

We give thanks to You Lord God, for You are good and Your mercy endures forever.

Lord God, we are thankful that You remember us and strengthen us as we pray. We are thankful that You Lord, open our eyes that we may, with wisdom, see clearly the path ahead; understanding the times and seasons.

Help us, O Lord, we pray, to complete our assigned duties with integrity of heart and a clear conscience and be certain that our efforts are what is good in Your sight.

Oh, that You would bless us indeed and enlarge our vision, that Your hand would be upon all we do, and that You would keep us from error, that we may not cause harm.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with us all as we delve into the multiple tasks that are before us.

For it's in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kathryn Leicht, Austin Carter, David Colborn, Jared Held, Christopher Gates, Adam Harkins, John Paul Harkins, Ryan Ochs, Jared Samson, Maxwell Stephens, Kayla Hess, Dakota Wood, Tawsha Creason, Hailey Stephens and Emily Yarbrough.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, we thank You for the sunlight, which has called us into the work of this day and for the cool air which stirs our energy. We thank You for the promise of new life spoken to us in the beginnings of green vegetation and in the sight of crocus and other spring blossoms. We praise You for Your bountiful blessings revealed to us in these wonders of nature.

Lord God, throughout the work of this day, may the vitality of spring sustain a similar energy in us. By Your creative power, bring into our minds new possibilities and new insights. As Your creativity supports the new life of spring all around us, so may the power and outcome of our work advance justice and equity throughout our state and support and protect the life of all the people.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 12, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

What can we give back to You, Lord GOD, for the blessings You have poured out on us? We simply offer the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call upon Your name. We'll finish what we promised we'd do, and we'll do it with excellence and integrity.

Lord, we don't want to let our emotions get the best of us this week, so we ask that Your peace would rise up like a mighty mediator in our heart, mind, and emotions. Help us to recognize those moments when unhelpful emotions hinder the process rather than enhance.

May Your peace be always ready at every moment to moderate every thought and emotion that may enter into our lives.

Grant us Your grace as we passionately pursue agendas that move this state in a positive direction.

Now may Your peace rest and abide with us all.

We pray these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Calvin Alumbaugh.

The Journal of the thirty-seventh day was approved as printed.

The Journal of the thirty-eighth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTIETH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, there are many hearings these days and many documents to read. We remember the wisdom of Jesus, "They who have ears to hear, let them hear." (Adapted from Matthew 11:15)

Yes, Almighty God, help us hear and assimilate all that is being said to us. Help us to hear deeply that we might comprehend the importance of the various issues. Bless us with the wisdom and understanding to recognize Your word when it is spoken by the human voice or the written word before us.

We ask for the gift of right judgment that we might give appropriate priority to the various needs presented to us. May the outcome of our work be the equity and justice that is in harmony with Your will, because You are God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILL

HCS HB 469, relating to school safety and liability, was taken up by Representative Wallace.

Representative Bringer offered House Amendment No. 1.House Amendment No. 1*

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 469, Page 19, Section 167.630, Line 13, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"168.133. 1. The school district shall ensure that a criminal background check is conducted on any person employed after January 1, 2005, authorized to have contact with pupils and prior to the individual having contact with any pupil. Such persons include, but are not limited to, administrators, teachers, aides, paraprofessionals, assistants, secretaries, custodians, cooks, and nurses. The school district shall also ensure that a criminal background check is conducted for school bus drivers. The district may allow such drivers to operate buses pending the result of the criminal background check. For bus drivers, the background check shall be conducted on drivers employed by the school district or employed by a pupil transportation company under contract with the school district.

2. In order to facilitate the criminal history background check on any person employed after January 1, 2005, the applicant shall submit two sets of fingerprints collected pursuant to standards determined by the Missouri highway patrol. One set of fingerprints shall be used by the highway patrol to search the criminal history repository and the family care safety registry pursuant to sections 210.900 to 210.936, RSMo, and the second set shall be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for searching the federal criminal history files.

3. The applicant shall pay the fee for the state criminal history record information pursuant to section 43.530, RSMo, and sections 210.900 to 210.936, RSMo, and pay the appropriate fee determined by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for the federal criminal history record when he or she applies for a position authorized to have contact with pupils pursuant to this section. The department shall distribute the fees collected for the state and federal criminal histories to the Missouri highway patrol.

4. The school district may adopt a policy to provide for reimbursement of expenses incurred by an employee for state and federal criminal history information pursuant to section 43.530, RSMo.

5. If, as a result of the criminal history background check mandated by this section, it is determined that the holder of a certificate issued pursuant to section 168.021 has pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or been found guilty of a crime or offense listed in section 168.071, or a similar crime or offense committed in another state, the United States, or any other country, regardless of imposition of sentence, such information shall be reported to the department of elementary and secondary education.

6. Any school official making a report to the department of elementary and secondary education in conformity with this section shall not be subject to civil liability for such action.

7. For any teacher who is employed by a school district on a substitute or part-time basis within one year of such teacher's retirement from a Missouri school, the state of Missouri shall not require such teacher to be subject to any additional background checks prior to having contact with pupils. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting or otherwise restricting a school district from requiring additional background checks for such teachers employed by the school district.

8. A criminal background check and fingerprint collection conducted under subsections 1 and 2 of this section shall be valid for a period of one year and transferrable from one school district to another district. A teacher's change in type of certification shall have no effect on the transferability of such records.

9. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the standards for suspension, denial, or revocation of a certificate issued pursuant to this chapter.

[9.] 10. The state board of education may promulgate rules for criminal history background checks made pursuant to this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after January 1, 2005, shall be invalid and void."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

You Lord, are God, Who has showered us with grace, freedom, and joy. You are our God, and we give thanks to You and exalt You. We give thanks to You Lord, for You are good; Your mercy endures forever.

Grant us that mercy as You help us to develop an unwavering attitude that refuses to surrender to hardship, criticism, difficulty or pressure.

Open our understanding to see the wonderful truths You've revealed to us. Your Word is our counselor and our delight. Grant us wisdom and understanding well beyond our natural knowledge and years of experience. We pursue it daily.

Now may You, the God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace in believing, so that we would abound in hope by the power of Your Spirit.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 26

WHEREAS, in 1720, Philippe Francois Renault introduced Negro slavery to Missouri when he brought 500 Negroes with him from Santa Domingo to work the lead mines in the Des Peres River section of what is now St. Louis and Jefferson Counties; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Compromise of 1820 resulted in Missouri being admitted as a slave state in exchange for approving the application for statehood of Maine as a free state in order to resolve a dispute involving the ban on slavery in territories north of the Ohio River enacted in 1787. Under the Missouri Compromise, slavery would be allowed in Missouri, but slavery would no longer be allowed for any future requests for statehood north of the what would become known as the Mason-Dixon Line; and

WHEREAS, in 1860, 36 counties in Missouri had 1,000 or more slaves. To keep the Blacks "in their place", a series of laws, known as slave codes, were drawn up. Under the territorial slave code of 1804, slaves were made personal property, and each revision of the law was drafted with this precedent in mind. The State Constitution of 1820, for example, provided that slaves were not to be emancipated "without the consent of their masters, or without paying them, before such emancipation"; and

WHEREAS, a slave was not permitted to keep a gun in Missouri. If he was caught carrying a gun, he was to receive 39 lashes and forfeit the gun. Slaves who participated in riots, attended unlawful assemblies, or who were guilty of making seditious speeches, were subject to whipping. Slaves guilty of conspiracy, rebellion, insurrection, and murder were put to death; and

WHEREAS, other laws further dehumanized the Blacks. Negroes or mulattoes "who should commit or attempt to commit assault upon White women would be mutilated." However, since a slave woman was chattel, a White man who raped her was only guilty of trespass on the master's property; and

WHEREAS, in 1825, a law was passed declaring Blacks to be incompetent as witnesses in legal cases involving whites; and

WHEREAS, in 1847, one of the harshest laws which further dehumanized the slave was enacted. In that year, an ordinance specifically prohibited the education of Negroes was passed. Anyone operating a school or teaching reading and writing to any Negro or mulatto in Missouri could be punished by a fine of not less than $500 and up to six months in jail. This law was a direct result of an ever increasing conviction on the part of slave holders that literacy led to rebellion; and

WHEREAS, even in death the races were generally separated. Usually there were "white" and "colored" cemeteries in every area of the State; and

WHEREAS, throughout the slavery period in Missouri there were persons, Black and White, who advocated the abolition of slavery both locally and nationally. These abolitionists were a hated group in a slaveholding state because they threatened the continued existence of an institution which provided for cheap labor. Because of their deep animosity toward persons who challenged their way of life, pro-slavery forces generally dealt severely with abolitionists; and

WHEREAS, discrimination followed the Negroes into the Army during the Civil War. Negroes, like Whites, were promised a bounty but not until the war was over did they receive it. While White soldiers received $13 a month, Negro soldiers were given $10 a month. Blacks were given inferior weapons and materials, inadequate medical care, and if captured, were killed until Lincoln and Grant threatened to treat captured Confederate soldiers in a similar manner; and

WHEREAS, in 1943, the Missouri Legislature killed a civil rights bill that would have given Blacks equal access to public places, such as restaurants and theaters; and

WHEREAS, in July 2003, President George W. Bush, at his visit to Goree Island (Senegal), acknowledged slavery in America as the largest migration in history, and also one of the greatest crimes of history; and

WHEREAS, in his State of the Judiciary address delivered to the First Regular Session of the 94th General Assembly, Missouri Supreme Court Chief Justice Michael Wolff acknowledged the Dred Scott decision as one of the greatest blemishes on judicial history; and

WHEREAS, in the Dred Scott case, Dred Scott, a slave who had lived in the free state of Illinois and the free territory of Wisconsin before moving back to the slave state of Missouri, had appealed to the Supreme Court in hopes of being granted his freedom. In March of 1857, the United States Supreme Court declared that all blacks - slave as well as free - were not and could never become citizens of the United States. Since Scott was not a citizen, he had no right to sue; and

WHEREAS, European and African nations have apologized for their roles in what history calls the worst holocaust of humankind, the Atlantic Slave Trade, and racial reconciliation is impossible without some acknowledgment of the moral and legal injustices perpetrated upon African Americans; and

WHEREAS, an apology for centuries of brutal dehumanization and injustices cannot erase the past, but confession of the wrongs can speed racial healing and reconciliation and help African Americans and white citizens confront the ghosts of their collective pasts together; and

WHEREAS, the story of the enslavement of Africans and their descendants, the human carnage, and the dehumanizing atrocities committed during slavery should not be purged from Missouri's history or discounted; moreover, the faith, perseverance, hope, and endless triumphs of African Americans and their significant contributions to the development of this State and the nation should be embraced, celebrated, and retold for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, the perpetual pain, distrust, and bitterness of many African Americans could be assuaged and the principles espoused by the Founding Fathers would be affirmed, and great strides toward unifying all Missourians and inspiring the nation to acquiesce might be accomplished if the State of Missouri acknowledged and atoned for its role in the slavery of Africans:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby formally apologize for the State of Missouri's role in slavery.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Ralph Robinett, Sergeant-at-Arms.

God our Father, life pulls us in many directions, and presents many possibilities. Sometimes we do not know which way to turn. There are so many claims upon our time, so many demands for our attention, that the very range of choices before us drives us to distraction.

It is then that we need You. Yours is the ultimate claim on our lives; help us to listen for it in all the other claims that are made on us. Because we cannot do everything, help us to get our priorities right, to know what You want us to do now, and what we have to leave.

May the stress and strain of life not break us, but make us stronger, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Joelle Pruitt, Karuna Gausper, Gabe Clifford, Andy Biesiadecki, Savanna Gifford, Dakota Gifford, Hudson Gifford, Zachary Jay Wallau, Jonah Summit and Erin Summit.

The Journal of the forty-first day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-THIRD DAY, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Deeken in the Chair.

Prayer by Chris Dunn, Director of Legislation, Office of Speaker Rod Jetton.

Heavenly Father, Your Word says "For behold, the winter is past... The flowers appear on the earth: the time of the singing of the birds has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land." (Song of Solomon 2:11-12)

As the grass turns green, as flowers emerge from the soil, and as the trees begin to bud we thank You for the arrival of Spring. We are genuinely grateful for the longer days and for the recent signs of life that are percolating around us. We ask today that You would reflect this same newness into our hearts.

Your Word says "A man can do nothing better than to eat and drink and find satisfaction in his work. This too, I see, is from the hand of God, for without Him, who can eat or find enjoyment? To the man who pleases Him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness." (Ecclesiastes 2:24-26)

We ask You Lord that You would make our work pleasing to You today and that in doing so, we would find great satisfaction. In return, we ask You to fulfill the promise that You will give wisdom, knowledge and happiness. You are awesome God. Thank You deeply for the life You have given us. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ross Deeken.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 26, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Who is like You, O Lord? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, awesome in praises, working wonders?

We return to the work at hand, invigorated, having spent quality time with family, obtaining some rest and now prepared to face the essential tasks ahead.

Help us to remain watchful, responsive to the present, pressing needs of our constituents while having the perceptive ability to forge a clear path for future generations.

May we never settle into smugness, pride or apathy, but rather yield to wisdom, good judgment and insightfulness.

Now to Him Who is able to keep us from stumbling, and present us faultless before the presence of Your glory with exceeding joy, to You, Who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever.

To You we pray, in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the forty-second day was approved as printed.

5. No contractor or material supplier shall, upon audit, be required to pay tax on tangible personal property and materials incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project, due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise the certificate expiration date as necessary to complete any work required by the contract. If it is determined that tax is owed on such property and materials due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise such certificate expiration date, the exempt entity shall be liable for the tax owed.

6. If an entity issues exemption certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of its project and such entity is found not to have had the authority granted by this section to issue such exemption certificates, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials. In addition, if an entity which does have the authority granted by this section to issue exemption certificates issues such certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of a project, or part of a project, which is found not to be related to such entity's exempt functions and activities, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials.

Section 1. 1. Notwithstanding any rule or law to the contrary, the department of revenue shall promulgate a uniform and simplified rule for all motor fuel tax exemptions. This uniform and simplified rule shall preempt all similar existing rules, shall minimize, if applicable, the time between requesting a refund and receiving a refund, and shall ensure that any document and administrative burdens be kept to a minimum and be shared equitably by the fuel wholesaler or fuel retailer and the tax exempt entity.

2. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 144.054, by inserting after all of said section the following:

"144.062. 1. With respect to exempt sales at retail of tangible personal property and materials for the purpose of constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities for: (1) a county, other political subdivision or instrumentality thereof exempt from taxation under subdivision (10) of section 39 of article III of the Constitution of Missouri; or (2) an organization sales to which are exempt from taxation under the provisions of subdivision (19) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or (3) any institution of higher education supported by public funds or any private not-for-profit institution of higher education, exempt from taxation under subdivision (20) or authority exempt from taxation under subdivision (40) of subsection 2 of section 144.030; or (4) any private not-for-profit elementary or secondary school exempt from taxation under subdivision (22) of subsection 2 of section 144.030, hereinafter collectively referred to as exempt entities, such exemptions shall be allowed for such purchases if the purchases are related to the entities' exempt functions and activities. In addition, the sales shall not be rendered nonexempt nor shall any material supplier or contractor be obligated to pay, collect or remit sales tax with respect to such purchases made by or on behalf of an exempt entity due to such purchases being billed to or paid for by a contractor or the exempt entity contracting with any entity to render any services in relation to such purchases, including but not limited to selection of materials, ordering, pickup, delivery, approval on delivery, taking of delivery, transportation, storage, assumption of risk of loss to materials or providing warranties on materials as specified by contract, use of materials or other purchases for construction of the building or other facility, providing labor, management services, administrative services, design or technical services or advice to the exempt entity, whether or not the contractor or other entity exercises dominion or control in any other manner over the materials in conjunction with services or labor provided to the exempt entity.

2. When any exempt entity contracts for the purpose of constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities, and purchases of tangible personal property and materials to be incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project are to be made on a tax-exempt basis, such entity shall furnish to the contractor an exemption certificate authorizing such purchases for the construction, repair or remodeling project. The form and content of such project exemption certificate shall be approved by the director of revenue. The project exemption certificate shall include but not be limited to:

- (1) The exempt entity's name, address, Missouri tax identification number and signature of authorized representative;
- (2) The project location, description, and unique identification number;
- (3) The date the contract is entered into, which is the earliest date materials may be purchased for the project on a tax-exempt basis;
- (4) The estimated project completion date; and
- (5) The certificate expiration date.

Such certificate is renewable for a given project at the option of the exempt entity, only for the purpose of revising the certificate expiration date as necessary to complete the project.

3. The contractor shall furnish the certificate prescribed in subsection 2 of this section to all subcontractors, and any contractor purchasing materials shall present such certificate to all material suppliers as authorization to purchase, on behalf of the exempt entity, all tangible personal property and materials to be incorporated into or consumed in the construction of that project and no other on a tax-exempt basis. Such suppliers shall execute to the purchasing contractor invoices bearing the name of the exempt entity and the project identification number. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to exempt the purchase of any construction machinery, equipment or tools used in constructing, repairing or remodeling facilities for the exempt entity. All invoices for all personal property and materials purchased under a project exemption certificate shall be retained by the purchasing contractor for a period of five years and shall be subject to audit by the director of revenue.

4. Any excess resalable tangible personal property or materials which were purchased for the project by a contractor under a project exemption certificate but which were not incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project shall either be returned to the supplier for credit or the appropriate sales or use tax on such excess property or materials shall be reported on a return and paid by such contractor not later than the due date of the contractor's Missouri sales or use tax return following the month in which it was determined that the materials were not to be used in the project.

5. No contractor or material supplier shall, upon audit, be required to pay tax on tangible personal property and materials incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project, due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise the certificate expiration date as necessary to complete any work required by the contract. If it is determined that tax is owed on such property and materials due to the failure of the exempt entity to revise such certificate expiration date, the exempt entity shall be liable for the tax owed.

6. If an entity issues exemption certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of its project and such entity is found not to have had the authority granted by this section to issue such exemption certificates, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials. In addition, if an entity which does have the authority granted by this section to issue exemption certificates issues such certificates for the purchase of tangible personal property and materials which are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of a project, or part of a project, which is found not to be related to such entity's exempt functions and activities, then such entity shall be liable for the tax owed on such personal property and materials."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, "the peoples speak of the splendor of Your glorious majesty, and tell of Your wondrous works."
(Psalms 145:5)

The new life bursting forth this Spring reveals You as Creator, who provides the resources needed for all the people. You give mankind "dominion over" (Genesis 1) all that You created.

As representatives of the people in this House, we have a special responsibility of distributive justice in this dominion over the resources of creation.

We ask You, O Lord, for the strength, courage, wisdom, and right judgment to do our part in distributing the resources of creation so that the basic needs of all the people are met.

We praise You as Creator, Lord, our God forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Julianna Margaret Basi, Eva Ann Williamson, Anna Henley, Brandi Gentry, Lucia Frayling, Kylie Arellano, Victoria Wilson, Alexander Carl Basi, Danielle Varner, Anthony Gurera, Kelsey Schweikert, Hunter Palmer, Calieb Bennett and Caleb Hotchkins.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SIXTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brian Baker.

Our Heavenly Father,

We give You praise and glory for the great and awesome God that You are. We are ever thankful for the grace and mercy You extend to us.

May we be ever mindful of the blessings You provide and may we be good stewards of that which You provide for us.

Lord, You have shown favor to our state. You have restored our prosperity and have provided hope for the future. May we never forget You are our salvation!

As we debate and discuss the issues of our day, let us remember we are all equal in Your eyes. Help us to remember that while we may disagree...we can work together for our fellow man. Let us remember that we are brothers and sisters in Your love.

Lord, we come with two special requests this morning.

First, please be with our special friend and colleague Jason Brown and all of our armed forces and those who fight for us in foreign lands. Be with them as they sleep in sand and dust...as they protect the innocent and defeat those who seek to do harm. May Your will be done in their lives.

Second, please be with the Limbach family and Megan Limbach during this difficult time of tragedy. We know that her three precious children...her three daughters are now in Your arms and under Your care. We can never pretend to understand Your will, but we know that these three little girls are now in a far better place and have no pain and no suffering. We ask of You...please give Megan and the Limbach family healing and a peace that passes all understanding.

Now as we begin our work...show us Your faithful love. Let us listen to Your Spirit. Let us remember You in our discourse. Let us remember that outside these four walls...real life is taking place and that You are watching over us.

How wonderful is Your name, O Lord.

We pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Dakota McCaine, Paola Osorio, Cristian Ochoa, Kaitlyn Scott, Malinda Rinne, Kyle Brumfield and Kendra Brumfield.

Representative Sutherland assumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, we praise You as God. We thank You for the blessings in our lives and all around us.

Bless the members of this House with the energy they need for the work of today, after devotedly working for the people of our State yesterday until the late hours of the day.

We pray the restoration of order, security and peace in Iraq. Guide the U. S. Congress and our President that they may make the right decisions regarding the crises in Iraq.

Together we pray for the Englishmen held captive by Iran and for successful negotiations with Iran so that a good working relationship with that country can be restored.

Scientists and technicians in the field of communications have made the world small. The Near East is very near; it is our neighbor. Help us to learn how to live with our neighbors, so that together we may serve and honor You as the one true God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Special Committee on Immigration, Chairman Nolte reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on Immigration, to which was referred HCR 33, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 33

WHEREAS, President George W. Bush established the Security and Prosperity Partnership (SPP) of North America, with the nations of Mexico and Canada on March 23, 2005; and

WHEREAS, a television reporter asked President Bush on March 23, 2005, whether in light of the European Union the SPP was a step towards continental integration and he responded, "...So that the vision that you asked about in your question as to what kind of union might there be, I see one based upon free trade, that would then entail commitment to markets and democracy, transparency, rule of law..."; and

WHEREAS, the gradual creation of such a North American Union from a merger of the United States, Mexico, and Canada would be a direct threat to the Constitution and national independence of the United States, and imply an eventual end to national borders within North America; and

WHEREAS, a White House news release confirmed the continuing existence of the SPP and its "ongoing process of cooperation" on March 31, 2006; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Ron Paul has written that a key to the SPP plan is an extensive new NAFTA superhighway: "[U]nder this new 'partnership', a massive highway is being planned to stretch from Canada into Mexico, through the State of Texas"; and

WHEREAS, this trilateral partnership to develop a North American Union has never been presented to Congress as an agreement or treaty, and has had virtually no congressional oversight; and

WHEREAS, state and local governments throughout the United States would be negatively impacted by the SPP/North American Union process, such as the "open borders" vision of the SPP, eminent domain takings of private property along the planned superhighways, and increased law enforcement problems along those same superhighways:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby urge the Congress of the United States to use all of its efforts, energies, and diligence to withdraw the United States from any further participation in the Security and Prosperity Partnership of North America and any other bilateral or multilateral activity however named which seeks to advance, authorize, fund, or in any way promote the creation of any structure to accomplish any form of North American Union as herein described; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

Mr. Speaker: Your Special Committee on Immigration, to which was referred HCS HB 85, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute No. 2 Do Pass, and pursuant to Rule 25(21)(f) be referred to the Committee on Rules.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 2, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Ed Emery.

O GOD, OUR FATHER, history and experience have given us so many evidences of Thy guidance to nations and to individuals that we should not doubt Thy power or Thy willingness to direct us.

Give us the faith to believe that when God wants us to do or not to do any particular thing, God finds a way of letting us know it.

May we not make it more difficult for Thee to guide us, but be willing to be led of Thee, that Thy will may be done in us and through us for the good of America and all mankind. This we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

(Former U. S. Senate Chaplain, Peter Marshall, 1948)

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 457, Section 135.030, Page 5, Line 64, by inserting after all of said section, the following:

"135.097. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Disabled", the inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months;

(2) "Homestead", the dwelling in Missouri owned for twenty or more years by the taxpayer and not to exceed five acres of land surrounding it as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home. It may consist of part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and part of the land upon which it is built. "Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more tenants by the entireties, joint tenants, or tenants in common and includes a taxpayer actually in possession if the taxpayer was the immediate former owner of record, if a lineal descendant is presently the owner of record, and if the taxpayer actually pays all taxes upon the property. It may include a mobile home;

(3) "Income", Missouri adjusted gross income as defined in section 143.121, RSMo, and increased, where necessary, to reflect the following:

(a) Social Security, railroad retirement, and veterans payments and benefits;

(b) The total amount of all other public and private pensions and annuities;

(c) Public relief, public assistance, and unemployment benefits received in cash, other than benefits received under this chapter;

- (d) No deduction being allowed for losses not incurred in a trade or business;
- (e) Interest on the obligations of the United States, any state, or any of their subdivisions and instrumentalities;
- (4) "Property taxes accrued", property taxes paid, exclusive of special assessments, penalties, interest, and charges for service levied on a taxpayer's homestead in any calendar year. Property taxes shall qualify for the tax credit only if actually paid before the date a return is filed. The director of revenue shall require a tax receipt or other proof of property tax payment. If a homestead is owned only partially by a taxpayer, then "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead which was actually paid by the taxpayer. For purposes of this subdivision, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the director of revenue for collection. If a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a farm, or multipurpose or multidwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For purposes of this subdivision "unit" refers to the parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part;
- (5) "Tax credit", a credit against the tax otherwise due under chapter 143, RSMo, excluding withholding tax imposed by sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo;
- (6) "Taxpayer", a Missouri resident or the resident's spouse who:
 - (a) Has been a resident of Missouri for twenty years, and has lived in their homestead for at least twenty years. The residency requirement shall be deemed to have been fulfilled for the purpose of determining the eligibility of a taxpayer or spouse who would have otherwise met the requirements for a tax credit but who dies before the last day of the calendar year;
 - (b) Has paid more than ten percent of the taxpayer's total household income in real property tax on the taxpayer's homestead; and
 - (c) Meets any one of the following requirements:
 - a. Has attained the age of sixty-five on or before the last day of the calendar year;
 - b. Is a veteran of any branch of the armed forces of the United States or this state who became one hundred percent disabled as a result of such service; or
 - c. Is disabled, and provides proof of such disability in such form and manner, and at such times, as the director of revenue may require.

If the taxpayers are eligible to file a joint federal income tax return and reside at the same address at any time during the taxable year, then the credit shall only be allowed if claimed on a combined Missouri income tax return reporting their combined incomes and property taxes.

2. For all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2008, a taxpayer shall be allowed a tax credit for property taxes accrued in the taxable year for which an income tax return is filed. The tax credit amount shall be equal to fifty percent of the property taxes accrued. The tax credit shall be applied against the taxpayer's income tax liability after all other credits provided by law have been applied. If the amount of the tax credit issued exceeds the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the tax year for which the credit is claimed, the difference shall be refunded to the taxpayer. No tax credit granted under this section shall be transferred, sold, or assigned.

3. No tax credit shall be issued to any taxpayer who filed a valid claim under sections 135.010 to 135.030, or section 137.106, RSMo, for the same taxable year.

4. The department of revenue may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2007, shall be invalid and void.

5. Under section 23.253, RSMo, of the Missouri Sunset Act:

- (1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset six years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly; and
- (2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and

(3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Oh, how we love Your teachings, Heavenly Father! They are in our thoughts all day long.

From Your guiding principles we gain understanding. That is why we are persuaded from every false way.

Lord, we recognize we can not fulfill our responsibilities on our own: they are sometimes weighty and burdensome. But we are reminded of this truth: You are able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think. Your strength is made perfect in our frailties.

We ask that You fill every waking moment of our lives with Your insights and the awareness of Your continual presence in our lives.

Now may the Lord of peace continually grant us peace in every circumstance. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with us always. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Levi Manley, Michael Fultz, Taylor Prince, Wyatt Fleming, Hope Wilson, Emily Cain, Evan Hester, Zach Allen, Scott Harris, Taylor Cox, Meaghan McGuire, Mason McMillin, Jessica Oliphant, Patience Chrisler and Brad Kramer.

11. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the regional economic development district sales tax imposed under this section when imposed within a special taxing district, including, but not limited to a tax increment financing district, neighborhood improvement district, or community improvement district, shall be excluded from the calculation of revenues available to such districts, and no revenues from any sales tax imposed under this section shall be used for the purposes of any such district unless approved by the regional economic development district board established under the regional economic development district law and the governing body of the city or county imposing the tax.

12. The board of the district shall make a report at least annually on the use of the funds provided under this section and on the progress of any plan, project, or area designation adopted under this section and shall make such report available to the public and the governing body of the city or county imposing the tax.

13. (1) No city or county imposing a sales tax under this section may repeal or amend such sales tax unless such repeal or amendment will not impair the district's ability to repay any liabilities which it has incurred, money which it has borrowed, or revenue bonds, notes, or other obligations which it has issued to finance any project or projects.

(2) Whenever the governing body of any city or county in which a regional economic development district sales tax has been imposed in the manner provided by this section receives a petition, signed by ten percent of the qualified voters of such city or county calling for an election to repeal such regional economic development district sales tax, the governing body shall, if such repeal will not impair the district's ability to repay any liabilities which it has incurred, money which it has borrowed, or revenue bonds, notes, or other obligations which it has issued to finance any project or projects, submit to the voters of such city or county a proposal to repeal the regional economic development district sales tax imposed under this section. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal to repeal the regional economic development district sales tax, then the resolution imposing the regional economic development district sales tax, along with any amendments thereto, is repealed. 14. If any provision of the regional economic development district law or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of the regional economic development district law which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the regional economic development district law are declared severable.

251.618. 1. A regional economic development district board, after adopting a regional economic development plan, may adopt incremental tax financing as set forth in this section for the purposes of the district by passing a resolution, however, incremental tax financing shall not be available for any retail projects. Upon the adoption of the first of any such resolutions, the treasurer of the board shall establish a special allocation fund for the regional economic development district.

2. Immediately upon the adoption of a resolution implementing incremental tax financing under subsection 1 of this section, the county assessor shall determine the total equalized assessed value of all taxable real property within such regional economic development district by adding together the most recently ascertained equalized assessed value of each taxable lot, block, tract, or parcel of real property within such regional economic development project area as of the date of the adoption of such resolution and shall provide to the treasurer of the board written certification of such amount as the total initial equalized assessed value of the taxable real property within such regional economic development district.

3. In each of the twenty-five calendar years following the adoption of a resolution adopting incremental tax financing for a regional economic development district under this section unless and until such incremental tax financing for such district is terminated by resolution of the regional economic development district board, the ad valorem taxes, and payments in lieu of taxes, if any, arising from the levies upon taxable real property in such regional economic development project area by taxing districts at the tax rates determined in the manner provided in section 251.627 shall be divided as follows:

(1) That portion of taxes, penalties, and interest levied upon each taxable lot, block, tract, or parcel of real property in such regional economic development project area which is attributable to the initial equalized assessed value of each such taxable lot, block, tract, or parcel of real property in such regional economic development project area as certified by the county assessor in accordance with subsection 2 of this section plus an annual tax base adjustment equal to the percentage change in the general price level as measured by the consumers price index for all urban consumers for the United States, or its successor index, as defined and officially recorded by the United States Department of Labor, shall be allocated to and, when collected, shall be paid by the collecting authority to the respective affected taxing districts in the manner required by law in the absence of the adoption of incremental tax financing. For the purpose of determining the percentage change in the general price level, the treasurer of the regional economic development district board shall determine the consumer price index as defined herein for the preceding calendar year over the consumer price index for the calendar year immediately prior thereto;

(2) Payments in lieu of taxes attributable to the increase in the current equalized assessed valuation of each taxable lot, block, tract, or parcel of real property in the regional economic development project area and any applicable penalty and interest over and above the initial equalized assessed value of each such taxable lot, block, tract, or parcel of real property in such regional economic development project area as certified by the county assessor and as adjusted by the annual tax base adjustment as detailed in this section shall be allocated to and, when collected, shall be paid by the collecting officer of the municipality or county to the treasurer of the regional economic development district who shall deposit such payment in lieu of taxes into a separate segregated account for payments in lieu of taxes within the special allocation fund. Payments in lieu of taxes which are due and owing shall constitute a lien against the real property from which such payments in lieu of taxes are derived and shall be collected in the same manner as real property taxes, including the assessment of penalties and interest where applicable. The lien of payments in lieu of taxes may be foreclosed in the same manner as the lien of real property taxes. No part of the current equalized assessed valuation of each taxable lot, block, tract, or parcel of property in any such regional economic development project area attributable to any increase above the initial equalized assessed value of each such taxable lot, block, tract, or parcel of real property in such regional economic development project area as certified by the county assessor and as adjusted by the annual tax base adjustment as detailed in this section shall be used in calculating the general state school aid formula provided for in section 163.031, RSMo, until incremental tax financing for such regional economic development project area expires or is terminated in accordance with the regional economic development district law;

(3) For purposes of this section, levies upon taxable real property in such regional economic development area by taxing districts shall not include the blind pension fund tax levied under the authority of article III, section 38(b) of the Missouri Constitution, the merchants' and manufacturers' inventory replacement tax levied under the authority of article X, subsection 2 of section 6 of the Missouri Constitution, the desegregation sales tax, or the conservation taxes.

4. In each of the twenty-five calendar years following the adoption of a resolution adopting incremental tax financing for a regional economic development project area under this section, unless and until incremental tax financing for such regional economic development project area is terminated in accordance with the regional economic development district law, fifty percent of the economic activity taxes from such regional economic development project area shall be allocated to and paid by the collecting officer of any such economic activity tax to the treasurer of the regional economic development district, who shall deposit such funds in a separate segregated account for economic activity taxes within the special allocation fund.

251.621. 1. A regional economic development plan shall set forth in writing a general description of the program to be undertaken to accomplish the regional economic development projects and related objectives and shall include, but need not be limited to:

(1) The name, street and mailing address, and phone number of the chairman of the regional economic development district board;

(2) The street address or other description of the location of the development site;

(9) An estimate as to the equalized assessed valuation after the regional economic development project area is developed in accordance with a regional economic development plan;

(10) The general land uses to apply in the regional economic development area;

(11) A list of community and economic benefits to result from the regional economic development project;

(12) A list of all development subsidies that any business benefiting from public expenditures in the regional economic development area has previously received for the project, and the name of any other granting body from which such subsidies are sought;

(13) A list of all other public investments made or to be made by this state or units of local government to support infrastructure or other needs generated by the project for which funding under the regional economic development district law is being sought;

(14) A market study for the regional economic development area; and

(15) A certification by the regional economic development district board as to the accuracy of the regional economic development plan.

2. The regional economic development plan may be adopted by a regional economic development district in reliance on findings that a reasonable person would believe:

(1) The regional economic development area has not been subject to growth and development through investment by private enterprise and would not reasonably be anticipated to be developed without the implementation of one or more regional economic development projects and the adoption of incremental tax financing;

(2) The estimated dates of the completion of such regional economic development project and retirement of obligations incurred to finance regional economic development project costs which shall not be more than twenty-five years from the adoption of the resolution approving any regional economic development project, provided that no resolution approving a regional economic development project shall be adopted later than fifteen years from the adoption of the resolution approving the regional economic development plan;

(3) The development plan contains a cost-benefit analysis showing the economic impact of the regional economic development plan on any municipality, county, regional economic development district, and school districts that are at least partially within the boundaries of the regional economic development area. The financial statement shall detail any assumptions made, a pro forma statement analysis demonstrating the amount of assistance required to bring the return into a range deemed attractive to private investors, which amount shall not exceed the estimated reimbursable project costs.

251.624. 1. When all regional economic development project costs and all obligations issued to finance regional economic development project costs have been paid in full, the regional economic development district shall adopt a resolution terminating incremental tax financing for all regional economic development project areas. Immediately upon the adoption of such resolution, all payments in lieu of taxes, all economic activity taxes, and other net new revenues then remaining in the special allocation fund shall be deemed to be surplus funds; thereafter, the rates of the taxing districts shall be extended, and taxes shall be levied, collected, and distributed in the manner applicable in the absence of the adoption of incremental tax financing. Surplus payments in lieu of taxes shall be paid to the county collector who shall immediately thereafter pay such funds to the taxing districts in the regional economic development area selected in the same manner and proportion as the most recent distribution by the collector to the affected taxing districts of real property taxes from real property in the regional economic development area. Surplus economic activity taxes shall be paid to the taxing districts in the regional economic development area in proportion to the then current levy rates of such taxing districts that are attributable to such economic activity taxes. Any other funds remaining in the special allocation fund following the adoption of a resolution terminating incremental tax financing in accordance with this section shall be deposited to the general fund of the municipalities or counties that originally formed the regional economic development district in a pro rata amount determined by the regional economic development district board.

2. Upon the payment of all regional economic development project costs, retirement of obligations, and the distribution of any surplus funds under this section, the regional economic development district shall adopt a resolution dissolving the special allocation fund and terminating the designation of the regional economic development area as a regional economic development area.

3. Nothing in the regional economic development district law shall be construed as relieving property in such areas from paying a uniform rate of taxes, as required by article X, section 3 of the Missouri Constitution.

251.627. In each of the twenty-five calendar years following the adoption of a resolution adopting incremental tax financing for a regional economic development project area, unless and until incremental tax financing for such regional economic development project area is terminated by resolution of the regional economic development district board, then, in respect to every taxing district containing such regional economic development project area, the county clerk or any other official required by law to ascertain the amount of the equalized assessed value of all taxable property within such regional economic development project area for the purpose of computing any debt service levies to be extended upon taxable property within such regional economic development project area, shall in every year that incremental tax financing is in effect ascertain the amount of value of taxable property in such regional economic development project area by including in such amount the certified total initial equalized assessed value of all taxable real property in such regional economic development project area in lieu of the equalized assessed value of all taxable real property in such regional economic development project area. For the purpose of measuring the size of payments in lieu of taxes under the regional economic development district law, all tax levies shall then be extended to the current equalized assessed value of all property in the regional economic development project area in the same manner as the tax rate percentage is extended to all other taxable property in the taxing district.

251.630. 1. A regional economic development district may at any time authorize or issue revenue bonds for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of any regional economic development project. Every issue of such bonds shall be payable out of the revenues of the regional economic development district and may be further secured by other property of the regional economic development district which may be pledged, assigned, mortgaged, or a security interest granted for such payment, without preference or priority of the first bonds issued, subject to any agreement with the holders of any other bonds pledging any specified property or revenues. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the regional economic development district, and if issued by the regional economic development district, shall bear such date or dates and shall mature at such time or times, but not in excess of twenty-five years, as the resolution shall specify. Such bonds shall be in such denomination, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such form, either coupon or registered, be issued as current interest bonds, compound interest bonds, variable rate bonds, convertible bonds, or zero coupon bonds, be issued in such manner, be payable in such place or places, and subject to redemption as such resolution may provide notwithstanding the provisions of section 108.170, RSMo. The bonds may be sold at either public or private sale at such interest rates, and at such price or prices as the regional economic development district board shall determine.

2. Any issue of regional economic development district bonds outstanding may be refunded at any time by the regional economic development district by issuing its refunding bonds in such amount as the regional economic development district may deem necessary. Such bonds may not exceed the amount sufficient to refund the principal of the bonds to be refunded together with any unpaid interest thereon and any premiums, commissions, service fees, and other expenses necessary to be paid in connection with the refunding. Any such refunding may be effected whether the bonds to be refunded then shall have matured or thereafter shall mature, either by sale of the refunding bonds and the application of the proceeds thereof to the payment of the bonds being refunded or by the exchange of the refunding bonds for the bonds being refunded with the consent of the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded. Refunding bonds may be issued regardless of whether the bonds being refunded were issued in connection with the same project or a separate project and regardless of whether the bonds proposed to be refunded shall be payable on the same date or different dates or shall be due serially or otherwise.

3. Bonds issued under this section shall exclusively be the responsibility of the regional economic development district payable solely out of regional economic development district funds and property as provided in the regional economic development district law and shall not constitute a debt or liability of the state of Missouri or any agency or political subdivision of the state. The regional economic development district shall not be obligated to pay such bonds with any funds other than those specifically pledged to repayment of the bonds. Any bonds issued by a regional economic development district shall state on their face that they are not obligations of the state of Missouri or any agency or political subdivision thereof other than the regional economic development district.

4. Bonds issued under this section, the interest thereon, or any proceeds from such bonds shall be exempt from taxation in the state of Missouri."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 94th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 2007

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Donald W. Lammers.

Holy God, Almighty God, we praise You for Your holiness and for Your love of all people. We are on the edge of the weekend that brings us the Easter break, of the days when we reflect upon the deepest meaning of death and of living, even unto eternity.

We thank You for all we have been able to accomplish to support and improve the lives of the people. We thank You for what we have been able to do to bring about the death of injustice and of other forms of evil.

We pray that we may continue to imitate by our work to enhance the lives of the people here on earth, all that You do to bring them to live in eternity.

We thank You for our families and for the opportunity to return to our homes this holy weekend.

You are our God forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Daniel Underwood, Jacob Woolbright, Christina Napper, Heather Jeude, Michael Jeude, Tom Carpenter, Katie Mack, Ben Vennard, Lucy Waldemer, Samantha Easter and Kevin Pearson.
